Visit "Family Connect" on YouTube

Family Connect, prayerfully walks through one verse of scripture in each episode, on Tuesdays and Thursdays. You might also take time each day, maybe at mealtime, to simply make the Sign of the Cross, share your intentions, and pray the Our Father.

Use the myparishapp (myparishapp.com) for your phone or other device to see where we are in the liturgical year - and make sure your family knows what saint or feast is celebrated that day. Keep an eye on our parish Facebook page and website for all the latest video and live-streaming opportunities, and watch them together as a family. Maybe most of all, just take time to talk with your children about how your own faith is informing your response to this crisis, and ask how it is informing theirs. Give them guidance - and faith, hope, and love. Keep well, keep safe, and keep in touch with your parish community!

Inspiration for the Week

Is God a real Being for you or simply an idea to be entertained? Often, we reduce God to a set of ideas, theories, and principles, and neglect to see Him as the One who takes joy in helping us understand all of the events and mysteries of life. God delights in journeying with us and is the only One who can fill us with joy and make our hearts burn with excitement and jubilation. He is the One who assists us in recognizing the truth that is before us and interpreting not only the jewels of Sacred Scripture but the events of history. If we recognize God, we can also see that He inspires us to see the divine meaning of our own lives as well. Sometimes it takes us a little time. After all, even Jesus' closest friends had to walk with him for a while on the road to Emmaus before their eyes were opened in the breaking of bread.

Thank you for your heartfelt generosity.

We apologize for any misspelling of names due to various handwriting.

What does it take for our eyes to be opened? Every day, a man laboriously walks down Main Street of town. With great difficulty but graceful determination, he places one foot in front of the other, uses a crudely made staff for support, and walks. His pace is slow, but he walks. What does he hope to see? Where does he want to go? What does he find? We all walk through life. The type of "walking" life requires is not always physical but is most assuredly emotional and spiritual. We walk, we look, we encounter, and we seek. How we do these things and what we actually find is determined by what we carry and what we allow ourselves to discover along the way.

If walking is too challenging for us, we may choose to isolate and stay alone. If we are afraid to walk, we may become overly dependent on others providing for us and abandon the journey. We can walk and pay attention only to what is in front of our feet and never notice the immensity of what is happening around us. The road is never the same twice. The journey is always different. What kinds of things do you notice as you walk through life? It seems that the disciples of the Road to Emmaus missed a lot at first. We do as well.

We are called to walk with purpose, to listen, and to notice things that may not at first be apparent. We have to allow the One who has a special claim on our soul to enlighten, instruct, and inspire us. The incarnate mystery of God is pulsating in and through all of creation, where the presence of the Word who became flesh can be discovered. He has been with us all along. How could we have missed Him? Our journey brings us back to the breaking of the bread, and something begins to stir within us. We begin to understand, and things look differently. Bread, body, wine, and blood bring us to see that everyone and everything is a "Eucharistic" encounter. We become what we eat and we see what we eat. We continue to walk. Our eyes are now opened, and we recognize Him. Our hearts burn. Stay with us. Please stay with us.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko
