Facebook page, YouTube
channel or the parish website to worship remotely.

“A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt and must empty ourselves.
Give yourself fully to God. He will use you to accomplish great things on the condition that you believe much more in His LOVE than in your weakness.”

~ Saint Teresa of Calcutta ~

Archbishop Blair Extends Mass Dispensation Through November 28, 2020

In light of continued uncertainty regarding the extent and duration of the coronavirus in the state of Connecticut and throughout the Archdiocese of Hartford, Archbishop Leonard Blair has extended the dispensation from the Sunday obligation through Saturday, November 28, 2020, which is the last day of the current liturgical year.

The Archdiocese of Hartford continues to monitor the severity of the situation surrounding the pandemic and will provide updates regarding decisions reached for the archdiocese as they are made.

When is the last time you received the Holy Eucharist?

In the Eucharist, we "break the one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death and the food that makes us live forever in Jesus Christ."

(St. Ignatius of Antioch)

Despite the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic, the opportunity to receive communion in a safe, socially distant manner is available following each weekend Mass at SS. Isidore and Maria Parish. We understand that there are some people who are not yet comfortable participating in Mass in person. Simply come to the front entrance of St. Paul Church at one to the times listed below, and avail yourself of God's closeness through the Eucharist:

Saturdays: 4:45 p.m.

Sundays: 8:45 a.m., 10:15 a.m., and 12 noon

We remain at the church until 12:30 p.m. each Sunday to accommodate all who wish to be nourished by the Bread of Life. Full safety protocols are in place: entrance and exit doors are open, social distancing practices are in place, and masks are to be worn. In addition, for your convenience, all of our Masses are live streamed. Please call the office if you have any additional questions or concerns. Thank you!

September Diaper Drive Challenge

Did you know that one in three families of infants and toddlers struggle to provide clean diapers for their babies?

The SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Health Care Ministry challenges all households in Glastonbury to donate one box of diapers per family on Sept. 26th & 27th.

We will be collecting diapers, wipes, and monetary donations outside St. Paul Church, 2577 Main Street, Glastonbury for one weekend only. Collection will take place as follows:

Sat. Sept. 26th: 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Sun. Sept. 27th: 8 a.m. - 12 noon

We are donating the diapers to St. Francis Hospital & Medical Center for distribution through the volunteer-led Joan C. Dauber Food Bank. It provides diapers to approximately 275 children monthly with needs of close to 14,000 diapers. This challenge takes place during National Diaper Need Awareness Week (Sept. 21-27, 2020).

Please note that there is a particular need for larger sized diapers as well as pull-ups.

Cash/check donations are welcome. Please make checks payable to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish, with "diaper drive" in the memo section.

For more information, please contact the parish office at 860.633.9419, or email: contact@isidoreandmaria.org.

Inspiration for the Week

Secular problems require savvy secular solutions. We are trained to solve problems, be successful and productive, and find our way through all that life presents to us. Corporations value those who can decipher the best avenue to take in order to resolve an issue. How do you train and renew your mind? Facts, figures, scientific tools, analytical processes, best practices, and models of varying kinds are at our disposal. If we don't know the full and proper course of action, we can easily find it. But there is a knowledge that goes far beyond all these things that makes a direct claim on the essence of our being. It satisfies a deeper thirst and hunger that keeps us restless until it is satisfied. Our minds, hearts, and souls cannot only be nurtured purely by secular and temporal things. We must seek the enlightenment that comes from God. This allows us to see the value of suffering in order to achieve a greater good and the losing of our very self in the service of something greater. Faith only makes sense if it can bring us to this heightened awareness.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

HOPES Collection Weekend: Sept. 19 & 20

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Our Sponsor Spotlight this week is:
Glastonbury Hills Country Club

In the United States, George Eastman registers the trademark Kodak, and receives a patent for his camera, which uses roll film. The company is headquartered in Rochester, NY. Kodak provides packaging, functional printing, graphic communications and professional services for businesses around the world. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, in 2020 Kodak announced it would begin production of pharmaceutical materials.

Thanks to Mr. Eastman, our friends with cameras (or phones) have captured the many "Kodak moments" in our lives! After all, we are VERY photogenic pups!

Harry & Oliver's Corner

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive.

Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life? If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple.

Walking with Purpose: A 22-Week Women's Guide to the Bible.

Ladies: Do you sometimes doubt if God really loves you? Are you searching for purpose? Do you struggle to measure up to our culture's definition of beauty? Is there someone you need to forgive, but you don't know how?

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish introduces "Walking with Purpose: The Woman's Guide to the Bible," a powerful, in-depth 22-week foundational course designed for women at every level of their Bible study experience.

Join us as we examine the core questions that we wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the key to the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Walking with Purpose program is flexibility, providing a combination of in-person and online gathering options.

Registration is open now through Thursday, September 16th, with the first class set to take place on Wednesday, October 14th! The cost is $40 to cover the cost of the study guide. Waivers to cover the cost of the fee are available if there is an income-based need.

For more information or to register, visit the parish website: <http://bit.ly/36PY6d8>, call the parish office at 860-633-9419, or email: contact@isidoreandmaria.org.

The International Day of Charity is an international day observed annually on September 5th. It was declared by the United Nations General Assembly in 2012. The prime purpose of the International Day of Charity is to raise awareness and provide a common platform for charity related activities all over the world for individuals, charitable, philanthropic and volunteer organizations for their own purposes on the local, national, regional and international level.
