Weekend Masses

All Masses are celebrated at St. Paul Church

Saturday Vigil: 4:00 p.m.
Sunday: 8:00 a.m.
Sunday: 9:30 a.m.
Sunday: 11:15 a.m.

No registration is required - seating is available on a first-come, first-seated basis, up to 100 people. Standard social distancing protocols will be in place.

Daily Mass

The schedule for Daily Mass at St. Paul Church is as follows:
Monday, Tuesday,
Wednesday: 7:30 a.m.
Friday: 12:15 p.m.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Confessions are held each Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at the St. Paul Church Gazebo. In the event of inclement weather, please see the usher at the main door of the church for instructions.

Live streaming of all weekend Masses from St. Paul Church takes place each Sat. at 4 p.m., and each Sun. at 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m., and 11:15 a.m. Please visit our Facebook page, YouTube channel or the parish website to worship remotely.

“Remember when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received only what you have given: a heart enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice and courage.” ~ St. Francis of Assisi

Help Our Parish Elementary Schools HOPES Collection ~ This Weekend

The HOPES Collection benefits the Catholic elementary schools of the Archdiocese by providing schools with individual HOPES Grants. Last year’s HOPES Grants funded advances in technology, safety and the marketing and promotion of Catholic schools through branding and social media. Thank you for your support.

Parish 2020 Annual Collection begins this week!

Be on the lookout in your home mailbox in the coming days for a letter from Father Mark about the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish 2020 Annual Collection. We thank you in advance for prayerful considering a donation so that we may continue to make visible Christ’s love every day in our community. Donations may be made payable to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish.

“Never measure your generosity by what you give, but rather by what you have left.”

Venerable Fulton Sheen

When is the last time you received the Holy Eucharist?

In the Eucharist, we “break the one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death and the food that makes us live forever in Jesus Christ.”

(St. Ignatius of Antioch)

Despite the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic, the opportunity to receive communion in a safe, socially distant manner is available following each weekend Mass at SS. Isidore and Maria Parish. We understand that there are some people who are not yet comfortable participating in Mass in person. Simply come to the front entrance of St. Paul Church at one of the times listed below, and avail yourself of God’s closeness through the Eucharist:

Saturdays: 4:45 p.m.

Sundays: 8:45 a.m., 10:15 a.m., and 12 noon

We remain at the church until 12:30 p.m. each Sunday to accommodate all who wish to be nourished by the Bread of Life. Full safety protocols are in place: entrance and exit doors are open, social distancing practices are in place, and masks are to be worn. In addition, for your convenience, all of our Masses are live streamed. Please call the office if you have any additional questions or concerns. Thank you!

Inspiration for the Week

Think for a moment about the most special person in your life. Why do you love them? Many people will answer that question noting character traits they admire about the person, pointing to an indescribable compatibility that exists and describing a deep sense of connection and intimacy or even a sense of rightness about the relationship. In relationships that are authentic and true, rarely are the personal benefits gained from the relationship noted as motivating factors for its pursuit. If we truly love someone we do so simply because it is right and good to do so and not for some other self-serving reason. Why do you love God? The sense of happiness and the gift of mercy that come from that relationship are God’s to give, regardless of when in life we come to Him. God’s ways are different than ours.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST: Weekly Homilies with Father Mark Suslenko

Catch up on the latest homilies from Father Mark through his podcast: “Weekly Homilies with Father Mark Suslenko” recorded each Sunday.

Visit <http://isidoreandmaria.buzzsprout.com/> to get the full podcast playlist, and be sure to add it to your playlist by subscribing on your favorite podcast app. You may also ask your smart speaker to “play the Weekly Homilies podcast,” or visit us on the web at: isidoreandmaria.org/podcast.

If I work for five hours, I expect to get paid for five hours. If I work for two, I expect to get paid for two. What if we worked for a company that paid everyone the same amount regardless of how long they worked? How would we feel going home with the same pay for working eight hours as my co-worker did for working only two hours? Secular wisdom would have a huge problem with this and a visit to the Labor Board would quickly pursue. But this is God's wisdom and God's ways.

We sometimes think that if we pray more, better, or more fervently and go over and above with the practice of our faith, God will somehow reward us and present us with some kind of merit badge. We are so wrong. Spiritual practices have only one true purpose: to deepen our love for God. In deepening our love for God, we also increase our ability to see God's presence around us, living life more purposefully and contemplatively. What if God chooses to treat someone who has come on the scene of faith later in life the same as someone who has devoted their whole lives to it? Does it really matter? If we have the merit badge notion of faith, we can find ourselves feeling a little arrogant and even jealous of folks who have not followed the same path that we have. We can even see ourselves as the privileged few who have a corner on the faith and fully possess it.

That thinking doesn't square with God. God is all about mercy in abundance and is ready to take anyone to himself regardless of when they come. He is only happy that they have come home and delights in their return. After all, if you really and truly love someone, does it matter what they will give you in return or what you receive as a benefit? If relationships were assessed based upon productivity, they would lack authentic love. We invest too much self interest in our prayer and neglect to see it as an opportunity to pursue our Lover and deepen the intimate bond we have with God.

When we breathe our last, all that is of consequence is union with God. If my love for God is real, I am going to want to live the Gospel, abide by the commandments, practice my faith, forgive and love my neighbor, and care for the environment, regardless of how much time it takes or benefits me. We want God to think and behave as we do, and in doing so, we set ourselves up for disappointment. God has a totally different agenda and that's okay.

Mental illness affects people of all ages, genders, religions, and backgrounds.

That's why the SS. Isidore and Maria Health Ministry seeks your help this month to support "The Purple Light Project," an initiative of Hartford Hospital's Institute of Living (IOL).

Throughout that month of September, we'll be collecting hygiene products (i.e. toothpaste, shampoo, soap, etc.) along with gently used clothing for distribution to psychiatric patients at Hartford Hospital's emergency department.

Please bring these donations to either church and deposit them in the boxes near the back doors marked "purple light." Thank you for your generosity!

ImmaCare Inc.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish ImmaCare Shelter Food Ministry

Are you looking to find a socially distant way to serve others through a parish ministry? Are you seeking to feel a deeper connection and involvement with our parish community in these trying times?

It is with great enthusiasm that we announce, the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish ImmaCare Shelter Food Ministry is starting up once again. After a brief pause due to the shelter renovations, we will soon resume delivering meals to the shelter.

We are grateful to all of the volunteers who have generously agreed to continue to serve in this ministry. We are reaching out to extend the opportunity to additional parishioners who may want to join our efforts! There are many options for involvement from simply ordering needed supplies on-line, or cooking a meal for delivery to delivering all of the donated food to the shelter. The schedule is flexible - you decide what works best for your situation.

We would also like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere gratitude and thanks to Gary Giannelli and Esther DeLucia for their many years of dedicated service to this ministry. They have recently decided to step aside from leading the coordination efforts. However, the foundation that they established will allow the great work of this ministry to continue.

For more information about becoming a part of this ministry, please contact Marisa Howard at howarrs@cox.net.

Coming September 26-27 Diaper Drive Challenge

Did you know that one in three families of infants and toddlers struggle to provide clean diapers for their babies?

The SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Health Care Ministry challenges all households in Glastonbury to donate one box of diapers per family on Sept. 26th & 27th.

We will be collecting diapers, wipes, and monetary donations outside St. Paul Church, 2577 Main Street, Glastonbury for one weekend only. Collection will take place as follows:

Sat. Sept. 26th: 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Sun. Sept. 27th: 8 a.m. - 12 noon

We are donating the diapers to St. Francis Hospital & Medical Center for distribution through the volunteer-led Joan C. Dauber Food Bank. It provides diapers to approximately 275 children monthly with needs of close to 14,000 diapers. This challenge takes place during National Diaper Need Awareness Week (Sept. 21-27, 2020).

Please note that there is a particular need for larger sized diapers as well as pull-ups.

Cash/check donations are welcome. Please make checks payable to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish, with "diaper drive" in the memo section.

For more information, please contact the parish office at 860.633.9419, or email: contact@isidoreandmaria.org.

Bible Study Resumes

Our weekly Bible Study will resume on Fridays from 3-4 p.m. in a virtual format (Zoom). The link is available on our parish website: <https://bit.ly/3bFU4GI> All are welcome!

You need only bring a Bible, or a copy of our text for the week. There is no homework and there are no lectures. Our method is to read aloud one or two chapters per week, stopping after each section for discussion. Jon Sozek facilitates. Come when you can. Last year, we had 8-10 regular attendees.

“Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous? Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

— Mt. 20:13c-16
