33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Well done, my good and faithful servant.” – Mt 25:21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

“We must offer ourselves to God like a clean, smooth canvas and not worry ourselves about what God may choose to paint on it, but at each moment, feel only the stroke of His brush.”

Parish 2020 Annual Collection Continues

You may donate online, or make checks payable to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish, and drop them in the offertory boxes. Please mark your donation "Parish Annual Appeal 2020." We thank you in advance for prayerful considering a donation so that we may continue to make visible Christ's love every day in our community.

DONATE TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

As we are all trying to navigate a new sense of normal during the Coronavirus pandemic we would like to THANK the more than 32,995 generous donors that have pledged over $8,485,500 to the 2020 Archbishop's Annual Appeal, Growing in Faith, Giving in Love.

To the extent that you are not adversely affected financially by the pandemic, please respond to the 2020 Archbishop's Annual Appeal as best you can. Any gift, no matter the size, is truly appreciated and can make a significant difference. This weekend is Commitment Weekend, please give prayerful consideration to a gift to this year's Appeal, which extends through December 31, 2020.

All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at: <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>

No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

God has entrusted his possessions to us. God's possessions are not earthly, physical things like ours: a home, bank account, personal items, and so forth. God's possessions are far greater and deeper. God's greatest possession is His very Self and it is precisely this pearl of great price that He bestows freely upon us. What are we going to do with it? Nourishing the fruits of wisdom is of the first order in determining how we are going to use what God have given. Understanding that His gift has not been given purely for our self-benefit is another. Wisdom asks us to broaden our horizons to embrace all avenues of human life, including the needs of the poor, the marginalized, and the needy. Manifested primarily in the virtues of faith, hope, and love, what God has entrusted to us can multiply exponentially if we invest His gift wisely and reap the greatest benefits. While it requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work, we will experience tremendous joy when we realize just how much confidence God has in us. Not acting on something out of fear or lack of trust serves no purpose and is of no use to either God or ourselves.

Rediscover the Eucharist: A Pastoral Letter from Father Mark

Find it at: <https://bit.ly/37iB2pW>

Despite the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic, the opportunity to receive Communion in a safe, socially distant manner is available following each weekend Mass at SS. Isidore and Maria Parish.

We understand that there are some people who are not yet comfortable participating in Mass in person.

Simply come to the front entrance of St. Paul Church at one of the times listed below, and avail yourself of God's closeness through the Eucharist:

Saturdays: 4:45 p.m.

Sundays: 8:45 a.m., 10:15 a.m., and 12 noon

We remain at the church until 12:30 p.m. each Sunday to accommodate all who wish to be nourished by the Bread of Life. Full safety protocols are in place: entrance and exit doors are open, social distancing practices are in place, and masks are to be worn. In addition, for your convenience, all of our Masses are live streamed.

Compassionate and Loving Father, in the face of confusion and concern, impart to us the calm of your presence. In You allow us to find hope and healing. Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands. Be with those who lead and give them Your Spirit of wisdom. Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart. Wrap your arms around our world and hold us in your love. Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet. We ask this in Your Name. Amen.

God gives us the gift of His very self and asks us to invest it. Investing God's greatest gift of Himself wisely, allows God's kingdom to grow and flourish. God trusts us with this pearl of great price in hopes that it will produce abundant fruit. While God's gift of self is realized in the gifts of faith, hope, and love, they are not meant to be solely for personal benefit. They are intended to be shared and are at the heart of Jesus' blueprint for happiness, the Beatitudes.

When we properly invest God's greatest gift, His most treasured possession, we invest in the wellbeing of all of our brothers and sisters and the world in which we live. We take up most seriously our call to be stewards and properly manage, not only our own affairs, but the affairs of those around and before us. God has put tremendous confidence in us. Do we have that same confidence in God?

We often go the extra mile and put in the additional effort when it comes to those concerns closest to us: our families, friends, careers, home and securities. But when it comes to things that are not as close to us, we can become lax and less conscientious. Tending to God's treasure requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work. It demands that I see the bigger picture, God's picture, in which self-sacrifice is a given as we labor for the establishment of God's kingdom, God's vision. Fear and a lack of trust can loom large, however. We are afraid of letting go of what is "mine" and apprehensive of jeopardizing what we have in order to venture into something bigger and more promising.

Fear and a lack of trust serve no purpose in God's kingdom. They benefit neither the person nor God. What is required is a courageous resolve that produces the fortitude necessary to stay the course and do what God is asking. Doing all in our power to cultivate the seeds of faith, hope, and love in our world, working diligently to put all of our relationships in proper order, becoming attentive to systems and ideologies that hurt and oppress people, being mindful of injustice, and laboring on behalf of the poor and the needy are at the core of what each of us is asked to do. It is how we invest God's most precious gift wisely. If persistent, alert and attentive, then life will gradually improve around us, there will be greater peace and we will experience joy

PODCAST:

Persevering in Faith, Living in Love

“When you look in the mirror, what do you see? I often have the privilege of being able to have conversations with people about who they are, who God is, if God is, and what is life's meaning. How we understand what we see in the reflection of a mirror is going to have a great deal to say about how we live our life.

Inevitably, these conversations center around two possibilities for us as human beings. The first possibility simply concludes that somehow, in some way, the world just simply came to be what it is, and that in some way human life began and the person that I see in the mirror is simply just a product of that biological, physiological, and cosmic process. Or the person I see is not a random occurrence, but rather the product of a loving God who chose to fashion and mold and create and give life in the form that I find myself to be. For the believer, once we accept the fact that we are here on purpose, that we've been willed into existence by a God who loves us, then, as life unfolds, we're going to try to see what happens to us in light of that relationship with our loving creator.”

FAITH FORMATION

Zoom Series on USCCB Letter on Racism

The Zoom series focusing on the 2019 pastoral letter from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops entitled, "Open Wide Our Heart: the Enduring Call to Love," concludes Tuesday, 11/17 from 7-8 p.m. For more information, please visit: <https://isidoreandmaria.org/faithformation/activities/discussion-racism/>

Zoom Series on Pope's Francis' Fratelli Tutti Continues Nov. 16 & 23

In early October, Pope Francis released the second encyclical of his papacy, entitled Fratelli Tutti. In it, the Pontiff explores the ideas of fraternity and social friendship to build a better, more just and peaceful world, with the contribution of all people and all institutions. Its publication is a truly a watershed event, not just for the Catholic world, but for the entire world.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish is offering a new Zoom series encouraging all - Catholics and non-Catholics alike - to read and discuss Fratelli Tutti in the hope that Pope Francis' words may help all of us to understand better the causes of human division, and inspire us to find new remedies.

We welcome all to be a part of this engaging Zoom series, no matter where you live or what you believe. These sessions will be facilitated by Dr. Jon Sozek, Parish Director of Faith Formation. Meetings will be held Mondays 11/16, and 11/23 from 7-8 p.m. For more information, please visit: <https://isidoreandmaria.org/faithformation/activities/fratellitutti/>

Evening of Reflection Mon. Nov. 23 at 7:00 p.m.

All are welcome to join their fellow parishioners on Zoom for another Evening of Reflection, on Monday, November 23 at 7 p.m. This free session is an opportunity to come together in fellowship and prayer as we prepare our hearts for Advent. The evening's focus is to renew our awareness of God's presence in our lives before the busyness of the holiday season takes over. The time we spend together will help ensure that this Advent is a time for rekindling our faith and rejoicing in the upcoming birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Saint Teresa of Calcutta asks, "At this Christmas, when Christ comes, will He find a warm heart?" This Evening of Reflection provides each of us with an opportunity to say "yes" to Him this Christmas season with a warm and loving heart. For more information and to sign-up please email Tammy Hewitt, parish Director of Evangelization and Discipleship, at: tammy@isidoreandmaria.org. The registration deadline is Thursday, November 19. We look forward to seeing you there!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: “May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart.” In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel. ©LPi
