

Full of Talent

Read the parable of the talents in Matthew 25:14-30.

Notice how the master rewarded the servant who used the talents he was given.

Think of a talent as a skill or gift to be shared rather than hidden, as Jesus says.

What are YOUR talents? Do you play an instrument? Are you good at cleaning?
Are you helpful and kind to others? Write your talents down on the lines below and describe how you share them.

Remember not to bury your talents in the ground!

The form consists of ten horizontal blue lines for writing. It is decorated with several cartoon illustrations representing different talents:

- A soccer ball on the left side.
- A boy with glasses reading a book on the right side.
- A painter with a palette and brush on the left side.
- A boy dunking a basketball on the right side.
- Two boys playing guitar on the left side.
- A boy vacuuming on the right side.
