A reflection from Father Mark on reopening, change and unity

As we slowly continue to reopen, I want to take this opportunity to welcome everyone back to our in-person Celebration of the Eucharist! The last year has also seen many new people coming to our parish and finding a home here. On behalf of our entire parish family I want to extend a heartfelt welcome to all of our new friends. Please take a moment to introduce yourselves now that we can relax our protocols a bit.

I realize that many are still not yet comfortable joining us for in-person worship. Please accept our prayers and know that you are with us in spirit. Our website at: isidoreandmaria.org can assist you with discovering ways that you can still remain connected with us.

Read all of Father Mark's reflection here: http://ow.ly/d6HO50EY15S

Thank You to our sponsors

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed, the tiniest of seeds. When planted, the tiny mustard seed grows into a tremendous tree with large branches. So, too, in each of our lives small things can have profound effects. God can use one of our more insignificant gestures to radically change another person's life. It may be the kindness of a smile, our willingness to accommodate someone, listening to someone's story, helping someone who is hurting, standing up for someone who is right or complimenting someone on something they did. We all have God given gifts and talents. What are some of yours? Our task is to use our talents creatively, consistently, lovingly, and generously. Because we are always guided by the Holy Spirit, things that may be insignificant or unnoticed to us can profoundly change the life of someone else. While we may think we are small and insignificant, God can make us large and magnificent. All we have to do is open ourselves to being used. We trust that God will take care of the rest.

Active Military Prayer List

Please hold in your prayers the following active service members:

Corporal Daniel Conrad, U.S. Army
Chief Master Sargeant Charles Edwards, U.S. Air Force
Colonel Steven F. Egan, U.S. Army
Lieutenant Brandon Farrell, U.S. Navy,
USS Gerald R. Ford
Cavalry Scout Samuel David Hovanec, U.S. Army
Second Lieutenant Peter Kamianowski, U.S. Air Force
SrA Alexis Maher, U.S. Air Force
Lieutenant Colonel Michael Scott Mullin,
F-16 fighter pilot, U.S. Air Force
RCT Jack M. Zaremba, Marines

Do you know someone who is currently on active duty with the U. S. Armed Forces for whom our community prayers would bring comfort, please email the person's name, rank and military branch to: contact@isidoreandmaria.org, or call the parish office at 860-633-9419.

A favorite motto of St. Teresa of Calcutta was, "do small things with great love." This is how it works in the kingdom of God. God can do tremendous things with the smallest gesture, especially when it is done in love. We can clearly see that our world is suffering greatly. People are struggling to find peace, navigate through conflicts, earn a sustainable living, find security and enough food to eat, and work through political tensions and conflicts. In the light of the magnitude of the difficulties that exist around us and even within us, we can find ourselves floundering to discover practical, effective solutions. How can something so large be helped by someone as small and seemingly insignificant as me? While whole systems and structures may be out of the league of our personal influence, are we really that helpless in the midst of all of the turmoil, sadness, and suffering?

If we believe that God is with us and that God is still working to bring about the glory of God's kingdom, then the answer is no. We are never helpless or without hope. Armed with a strong life of prayer, we can always flee to God and ask for inspiration, wisdom, and especially love. We are all blessed with unique gifts and talents and it often seems that considering all that the world lacks, love and charity remain at the top of the list. Life can easily become a battleground of hostility. Because life is challenging and difficult, anger is not far away. We see it on people's faces and hear it in their voices. There is a measure of frustration that permeates all avenues of life. It is even felt in the air.

As people of faith, we know that what we see here is not the end but only a part of something far greater to come. We know that God's kingdom is where we are ultimately meant to be, and the Gospel is the way to get there. If love and charity can prevail in us, then God will be able to do what God does best. God will use us to scatter the seeds of his kingdom. Through our small gestures, those seeds can receive the nurturing attention that is necessary for them to bear great fruit. We cannot fall victim to the strife that is around us. We have to keep ourselves refreshed and focused so that even in small ways, we can become part of the solution, not the problem. Love and charity, which come from God, can help to heal the ills of the world. May we bring these simple gifts to the everyday simple tasks of our lives! Watch how big the plant grows!

Three Simple Questions
Who is God? Who am I?
Where am I going?

These are three simple questions. While the answers are complicated, they are questions that each human being must answer over the course of a lifetime. Let Father Mark get you started in the right direction with his latest podcast, "Three Simple Questions," available here: https://www.buzzsprout.com/133396/8655178

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land...Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." — Mk 4:26, 28-29

Interim Faith Formation Co-directors Announced

Tammy Hewitt

Donna Berger

An announcement from Father Mark S. Suslenko, Pastor, SS. Isidore and Maria Parish:

As we continue the search for a new parish Director of Faith Formation, I'm pleased to announce that current staff members Donna Berger (right) and Tammy Hewitt (left) have graciously agreed to serve in this role as interim co-directors.

Donna is the parish's Youth Minister, where she oversees the annual mission trip and associated golf tournament.

Tammy is the parish Director of Evangelization and Discipleship, a role she has held since August 2020. Since arriving, she has served to grow existing parish ministries, and guided the creation of new ministries, including the mental health ministry and the Widows Helping Others (WHO) Ministry.

They will be working together with me, and with Ann Poker, Faith Formation Program Coordinator, in organizing and executing our various Faith Formation Programs. I have complete confidence in this team to lead us through this transition. Please join me in keeping them in our prayers.

With Blessings,
Father Mark

Ballpoint Pen

The first commercially successful ballpoint pen was patented by László Biró. He noticed that printer's ink dried quickly, but was too thick to use in a fountain pen. He developed a ball tip that was free to turn in a socket, and would pick up ink from a cartridge as it turned then deposit the ink on the paper. He originally patented his pen in Paris in 1938, but had to flee to Argentina due to the Nazis.

In 1941, the Bíró brothers and a friend, Juan Jorge Meyne, moved to Argentina, where they formed "Bíró Pens of Argentina" and filed a new patent in 1943. Their pen was sold in Argentina as the "Birome" from the names Bíró and Meyne, which is how ballpoint pens are still known in that country. Ballpoint pens were found to be more versatile than fountain pens, especially at high altitudes, where fountain pens were prone to leak.

Hey Oliver, I think Fr. Mark is on his way to the pet store! I wonder what brand of ball-point pen he uses. Fr. Mark must use a lot of pens to make the long lists of all the treats he needs to buy!
