Year of Saint Joseph

“Each of us can discover in Joseph - the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence - an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble.”

~ Pope Francis

“We are all called upon to bear witness to and to proclaim the message that ‘God is love,’ that God is not distant from us or insensible to our human affairs. He is close to us, He is always by our side, He walks with us to share our joys and our pains, our hope and our strife. He loves us so much, to the point of making Himself man; He came into the world not to guide us but so that the world might be saved through Jesus. And this is God’s love in Jesus, this love that is so difficult to understand but which we feel when we draw close to Jesus. And He always forgives us, He always awaits us, He loves us very much. And the love of Jesus that we feel is God’s love.”

Oct. 13: Parish office closing each Wednesday for the remainder of the calendar year

The central business office for SS. Isidore and Maria Parish, located at St. Paul Church, 2577 Main Street is closed on Wednesdays starting Oct. 13. This will continue through Dec. 29. Regular Wed. office hours resume on Jan. 5, 2022

October is Respect Life Month

A message from the Most Rev. Joseph F. Naumann, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Pro-Life Activities:

“The month of October brings with it our annual observance of Respect Life Month. As part of the Year of St. Joseph declared by Pope Francis, this year’s celebration highlights the example of that great saint.

As the faithful protector of both Jesus and Mary, we find in St. Joseph a profound reminder of our own call to welcome, safeguard, and defend God’s precious gift of human life.”

Local artists created a true “Oasis of Beauty” on Oct. 2 at the first ever SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Fine Art Show. Hundreds passed through the St. Paul Church South Wing to view the temporary art installation. Thanks to all who attended, those behind the scenes who made it possible, with special recognition to each one of our artists whose work was exquisite. Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn’t operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life’s attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God’s gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

Meet David Garrido-Cid, Parish Director of Music Ministries

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish welcomes David Garrido-Cid as Director of Music Ministries, starting Oct. 25, 2021.

David (pronounced da-VEED) comes to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish from St. Thomas the Apostle Church and School in West Hartford, where he served as Director of Music Ministries and as a Spanish teacher. David previously served as Director of Music Ministries at the Catholic Communities of East Hartford, and at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Simsbury.

David Garrido-Cid

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

OCT. 13:
Family support
group meeting
for adults with loved ones experiencing symptoms of mental illness.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Mental Health Ministry has partnered with the Connecticut Chapter of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) to offer a monthly, free, confidential, peer-led family support group for any adult with a loved one who has experienced symptoms of a mental health condition. The next meeting of this group takes place on Wed., Oct. 13 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. For more information, visit the parish website:
<https://isidoreandmaria.org/NAMI-support>

Fall Food Drive: Oct. 16 and Oct. 17

We're calling upon the parishioners of SS. Isidore and Maria Parish to take part in the upcoming Fall Food Drive after all Masses on Sat., Oct. 16 and Sun., Oct. 17.

We seek donations of non-perishable food items and grocery store gift cards. All that is collected will be distributed to anyone in need locally through the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Non-perishable food:

- Pancake mix
- Pancake syrup
- Peanut butter
- Jelly
- Canned fruit/vegetables
- Snacks/crackers
- Canned tuna
- Cereal (hot or cold)
- Coffee

Household items:

- Paper towels
- Laundry detergent
- Dish soap
- Toilet paper
- Tissues

Here's how it works:

- Drive to the front of St. Paul Church
- Following the instruction of the volunteer directing traffic, please proceed to the collection vehicle.
- Place your donation in the collection vehicle*.
- Please wear a mask.
- Exit via Main Street, or through the back parking lot.
- Those in attendance at Mass may leave donations with the ushers.

Please note that this is a collection event only. Anyone in need of food or other items through the St. Vincent de Paul Society may contact the parish office at: 860-633-9149, or: contact@isidoreandmaria.org.

* Assistance with placing items in the collection vehicle is available upon request. Please speak with a volunteer for more information.

PODCAST: The Origin of Love

“Jesus in his very simple commandment sees as the basis of all of God's kingdom the power of love: love God, love, neighbor, and love self. It is in and through the connecting of those loves that one lives in the presence of God. And so in essence, he tells us and instructs us what you do to the least of my brothers and sisters, you do to me. How we treat a neighbor is a direct reflection upon God himself. And so you can't separate out your human relationships from your relationship with God. They're all combined and interconnected. There's this intertwining power of love that infiltrates and connects everything in our lives.”

Father Mark's latest podcast takes on the origin of love, one of the basic concepts of our faith. Hear what he has to say in his latest podcast, “The Origin of Love,” available for streaming or download at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>

Burial Clothes for Haiti: A New Parish Ministry

It's a sad reality that some families in Haiti cannot afford a funeral for their loved ones because the cost of the funeral is often more than a family earns in an entire year.

Through generously sharing time, talent and treasure, volunteer members of this ministry will prepare and send burial clothes to Haiti so that the deceased can be buried with dignity.

For more information on how to help support this important work through helping with the sewing or to donate sheets, visit: <https://isidoreandmaria.org/2021/10/01/burial-clothes-for-haiti-a-new-parish-ministry/> or contact parishioner Chris Delissio at 860-633-2946.

This Day in History — Oct. 11, 1962

Pope John XXIII

Opening of the Second Vatican Council

The Second Ecumenical Council of the Vatican, commonly known as the Second Vatican Council, or Vatican II, addressed relations between the Catholic Church and the modern world. The Council, through the Holy See, was formally opened under the pontificate of John XXIII on Oct. 11, 1962 and was closed under Paul VI on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception on Dec. 8, 1965.

Several changes resulted from the Council, including the renewal of consecrated life with a revised charism, ecumenical efforts with other Christian denominations, interfaith dialogue with other religions, and the universal call to holiness, which according to Paul VI was “the most characteristic and ultimate purpose of the teachings of the Council”.
