EXCERPTS FROM THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS ©2001, 1998, 1970 C.C.D. ©LPI

“To escape the distress caused by regret for the past or fear about the future, this is the rule to follow: leave the past to the infinite mercy of God, the future to His good Providence, give the present wholly to His love by being faithful to His grace.”

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually those whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love, we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other-centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

Update from SS. Isidore and Maria Parish

As an act of charity to those among us who are more vulnerable to COVID-19, SS. Isidore and Maria Parish asks that face masks be worn in the main body of St. Paul Church beginning with weekend liturgies on Jan. 22, 2022.

We are making this request even in the absence of a civil requirement for parishioners to mask. Because the main body of the church and the South Wing are separate spaces, each with its own HVAC system, masking in the South Wing is optional.

Face masks are available at all entrances to St. Paul Church. Please ask any usher for assistance.

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life February 2, 2022 (Celebrated in Parishes February 5-6)

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on Feb. 2. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church.

Spring or Winter??

"Go to the Lord very simply, with the surrender of a small child."
~ St. Peter Julian Eymard

Cover quote:
www.goodreads.com/author/quotes/143527

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else, his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense, it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did incredible things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he could step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St.

Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal, and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. The value and worth of a human being are being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our simple, humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

St. Blaise | Feb. 3

You may be familiar with the annual “blessing of throats” that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Religious persecution forced him to flee, taking refuge in a cave in the backcountry to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions, and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son, who had a fishbone lodged in his throat. At Blaise’s command, the child coughed up the bone and thus lived.

Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

A special Thank You to Diane Sereduck who shares her talent providing many of the photos featured in Harry and Oliver’s Corner. Diane is our “photographer to the stars”.

What is National Catholic Schools Week?

Since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It starts the last Sunday in January and runs all week, which in 2022 is Jan. 30 – Feb. 5. The theme for National Catholic Schools Week 2022 is “Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service.”

Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation.

PODCAST: The Bigger Picture of Life

“We discover a greater depth of human experience when we allow ourselves to be exposed to some of the great wonders of the world. There is something that is stirred within us whenever, and however, we can begin to drink deeply of all that has gone before us. Something stirs within a human heart when one walks into the Sistine chapel and is able to partake in and view and absorb the magnificence of Michelangelo's renderings. We are brought to a different place.”

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life

God of all goodness, you have called people to follow you faithfully. Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives. Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits; some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows; while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters.

Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world.

We ask this in faith through the name of Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Happy New Year from East Catholic!

We are opening a new chapter in our admissions process. Students who have been accepted and paid the deposit will soon be invited to schedule classes for next year! We are still accepting new applicants and offering the entrance exam in person.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

In his call to be a prophet, the Lord informs Jeremiah of both the human resistance and the divine providence that lies ahead for him. When have you felt God's presence in the midst of turmoil in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul eloquently defines the spiritual virtue of "love" for the Christians in Corinth. How well do you live by the standards of love as defined by Paul?

Gospel:

The people of Nazareth were "filled with fury" at Jesus' words to them. How do you imagine Jesus reacted to being rejected by those in his hometown of Nazareth?

This Day in History — Feb. 2

Candlemas is a Christian festival celebrated on Feb. 2. It commemorates the occasion when the Virgin Mary, in obedience to Jewish law, went to the Temple in Jerusalem both to be purified 40 days after the birth of her son, Jesus, and to present him to God as her firstborn (Luke 2:22–38). The festival was once known in the Roman Catholic Church as the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is now known as the Presentation of the Lord. Traditionally, the Western term "Candlemas" (or Candle Mass) referred to the practice whereby a priest on Feb. 2 blessed beeswax candles for use throughout the year. These were sometimes distributed to the faithful for use in the home.

Groundhog Day is a popular North American tradition observed in the United States and Canada on February 2. It derives from a Pennsylvania Dutch superstition that if a groundhog emerging from its burrow on that date sees its shadow, it will retreat to its den, and winter will persist for six more weeks. However, spring will arrive early if it does not see its shadow because of cloudiness.

Groundhog? Groundhog?
Somebody say something about a Groundhog???
Oliver, you see a shadow?
