Live Stream Team seeks camera operators

Have you ever wondered what it takes to stream one of our Masses? We have a dedicated team who manage our schedule, but one has graduated from high school and will soon be off to college!

We are in search of additional team members who can come to the 4 p.m. and/or 11:15 a.m. Mass 15 minutes before starting time, stream the Mass from our choir loft, and put the equipment away. The task is manageable, but essential. For more information, please email our parish director of communications, Carol Vassar.

STRONGER TOGETHER Archbishop's Annual Appeal

Thank you to the families who have made a gift or pledge to the 2022 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. If you have not yet had the opportunity, please consider prayerfully supporting the many "Good Works" of the Archdiocese. Every gift will be gratefully received and appreciated. All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal

No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

God calls to us amid life's ordinary experiences. Looking for God only in the dramatic, the spectacular, the ritual, or the sacred places, we often overlook that He is walking beside us. God calls to us every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, saying, "Follow me."

Sometimes, we are too distracted to attend to His call. Other times, we ignore it or pretend we didn't hear it. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine-tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's lens, not our own. Life is no longer about what matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter to use to make choices, establish priorities, determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we hear and accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back at what was left behind. We must only look forward to the surprises yet to come.

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following Your Will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please You does in fact please You. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. ~ Thomas Merton

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY FATHER MARK!

June 28, 2022 marks the 36th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood of our pastor, Father Mark Suslenko.

Oliver and I join the parish family of SS Isidore and Maria in congratulating Father Mark.

Our community along with family and friends, offer love and gratitude to him and to God for the gift of his priesthood. May God continue to bless you, Father Mark and prosper the work of your ministry.

Definitely LOTS of Treats today!!

Harry & Oliver's Corner

THANK YOU for your generosity

Thank you very much to everyone who donated items to the ImmaCare Outreach program this month. A van full of items was picked up on Thursday, June 2nd. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. This program assists in providing nourishment five days each week to the homeless living on the street, in abandoned buildings or wherever shelter can be found. Our donations supplement the sandwiches that are given out each day. Since there is virtually no funding for this program, an acute need exists for food items and water. Our next collection date is Thursday, July, 7.

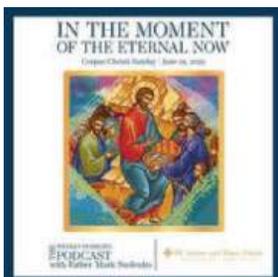

Thank you to all parishioners and friends who helped in numerous ways to provide a nourishing dinner to the homeless at ImmaCare Shelter on Friday, June 10. A special thank you this month to Sue Dzialo who stepped up to coordinate this month's meal! The men at ImmaCare, as always, expressed their appreciation for the abundant and delicious assortment of food. The next dinner is schedule for July 8. We are always in need of food, provisions and monetary donations. This ministry at SS. Isidore and Maria provides a monthly dinner year round. If you have any questions or would like to participate please contact Marisa Howard- howarrs@cox.net or 860.633.0408. Please consider helping in any way possible.

Faith and Friendship Spoken Here

The late June edition of the podcast Faith and Friendship Spoken Here looks at school summer vacations, family milestones, June as the Month of the Sacred Heart, and an introduction to the eagles who live not far from St. Paul

Church. Now available for streaming or download at isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts

PODCAST: In the Moment of the Eternal Now

“As we look at how life plays out in our distracted world, we begin to realize life in its abundance and its profoundness isn’t discovered in the years or the weeks or the months, it’s really in the moments of our lives that powerful connections happen. But we’re often so distracted and elsewhere that all of those moments just kind of run together into the bigger picture of time. And we don’t have the opportunity to really celebrate them.” – Father Mark

Life’s “now moments” – the birth of a child, the death of a loved one, the receiving of the Holy Eucharist – are where we find and experience all that God has in store for us upon entering his kingdom for life eternal. Father Mark explains in his podcast for Corpus Christi Sunday, entitled “In the Moment of the Eternal Now.” It’s available for streaming or download at isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts.

RESOURCES: Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health anticipated Supreme Court decision

Later this month, a final ruling is anticipated from the U.S. Supreme Court in the abortion case of Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization. Given the strong possibility that the Court will overturn or significantly roll back the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision, visit isidoreandmaria.org/resources for some specific resources that parishioners may access so we can all better understand the Catholic teaching on this topic, what we do to accompany women and couples who are facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies, and to offer mercy and compassion to those suffering from abortion.

NOW UNDERWAY: The National Eucharistic Revival

Shout it from the rooftops! We are collecting your stories of encountering Jesus in the Eucharist to share and inspire others during the National Eucharistic Revival. Learn more about the revival and how to share your story at isidoreandmaria.org/eucharisticrevival.

Registration NOW OPEN for Sept. 20 Golf Tournament and Fundraiser Dinner

Registration is now underway for the annual SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Golf Tournament and Fundraiser Dinner on Tues., Sept. 20 at Glastonbury Hill Country Club. Proceeds from this event help to underwrite the costs of the 2023 Teen Mission trip and other local teen community activities. Sponsorship opportunities begin at just $100. Golf registration is $150 per player/$600 per foursome. Not a golfer? Join your fellow parishioners for just the dinner at Glastonbury Hills Country Club that evening at 5 p.m. Dinner only cost is $60 per person, and includes cocktail hour and dinner with auctions and raffles. For more information or to register, visit isidoreandmaria.org/golf2022

Become part of the Parish Music Ministry.

The SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Music Ministry would like to tap into our Parish’s talent. If you or someone you know play any instruments or have an affinity for singing and would like to participate in our liturgies, we kindly ask that you reach out to our Music Director, David Garrido-Cid.

God calls us every moment of every day, circumstance, and experience, saying, "Follow me." We can easily get distracted, miss it, or pretend we never heard it. Some conditions must be met when we listen to it and favorably respond. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worrying about unfinished business. Some tasks - discipleship, for example - require our complete devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal our allegiances. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given a choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters promise, they keep us looking backward, checking on ourselves, second-guessing our choices, calculating our options, and being beholden to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him, or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking back. Sins are forgiven, and regrets serve no practical purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in today and tomorrow, and what he can continually do with our daily declaration to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

We hear today Elijah's call to Elisha to follow him and succeed him as the prophet to lead the Israelite people. Elisha did not hesitate to respond to the call. How have you responded to God's call for you?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Gentile-believers in Galatia to use their new-found freedom in their faith in Christ to "serve one another through love." In what ways do you use your faith in Christ to serve others?

Gospel:

As Jesus begins his final journey toward Jerusalem, we hear how various encounters allowed Jesus to define the parameters of discipleship. What challenges do you encounter in being a disciple of Jesus?

36 years ago Father Mark celebrated his first Mass as an ordained priest on the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest. The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.
