ONE STOP SPIRIT SHOP

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Discipline is necessary to focus our attention and develop and refine our skills. A disciplined person has integrity and can make difficult but necessary choices. Most people do not like discipline, especially children. When we have to rise above our impulses and desires and do something challenging, it can appear as a punishment. The struggles of living a good and effective Christian life, especially when we actively choose virtue over vice, are allowed by God and necessary for reaching spiritual maturity. God invites us to share in His Kingdom. Hearing and accepting that invitation requires an active, conscious decision. Reforming our lives and changing how we do things does not come easily. But it is precisely what is necessary for us to enter through the narrow gate that leads to life. Discipline is essential if we plan to discover our desire for union with our Creator and live in God's house. This way, we will not risk finding the door locked when we need it to open.

It's a picnic! It's a festival! It's fun for the entire family!

"To escape the distress caused by regret for the past or fear about the future, this is the rule to follow: leave the past to the infinite mercy of God, the future to His good Providence, give the present wholly to His love by being faithful to His grace." ~Jean-Pierre de Caussade, Abandonment to Divine Providence

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. "When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care (Jean- Pierre de Caussade)."

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God?

To remain faithful to the way Jesus places before us, we must listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuing the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, "all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it (Hebrews)."

"What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled...If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)."

Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a pre-ordained set of circumstances. Instead, it is abandonment and trust in God's creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before.

PODCAST: Uprooting Sin

"Anyone who does any kind of gardening knows that this time of year presents us with the battle of the weeds. Those little creatures seem to grow overnight and encroach on our gardens. St. Oscar Romero says the mission of the church is hard because its primary task is to uproot sins. And we know how much weeds can have a grip on the soil, and they don't want to release. You can imagine how hard it is to uproot sin."

~ Father Mark Suslenko

What it takes to uproot sin: that's the basis of Father Mark's latest podcast, "Uprooting Sin." It's available for streaming or download at isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts, on your favorite podcast app, or by telling your smart speaker to play "Weekly Homilies."

O LORD, HEAR OUR PRAYER.

If you are offering a Mass Intention and you and your loved ones would like to bring up the gifts, please see the ushers prior to the start of Mass. One of them will be happy to assist you..

Hail holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

Pray for us O holy Mother of God, that we made be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

Connect: The Disciple of Discipleship

By Rev. Mark S. Suslenko, Pastor
SS. Isidore and Maria Parish

"Abraham Lincoln is said to have remarked that 'discipline is choosing between what you want now and what you want most.' What is it that you desire most? This is a powerful question that must be asked and answered if we want to avoid a haphazard, disjointed, and chaotic life. It also must be asked and answered if we claim to be a person of faith who is committed to living the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

CLARE
GALLERY
at the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry

Clare Gallery new exhibit Saints Alive

Hartford, CT — Clare Gallery opens its fall schedule with the exhibition, Saints Alive, work by Franciscan Friar, Fr. John Quigley, OFM. In the work, an artistic lens is placed on the stories of saints and the medium of printmaking — specifically woodcuts. Most of the artwork, in this exhibition, was created for Saint Of the Day, by Fr. Leonard Foley, OFM, commissioned by St. Anthony Messenger Press. Fr. John wants the saints to be depicted in contemporary light, hoping his audience makes connections with the saints and their stories. The exhibition runs from Sept. 2 to Oct. 7, with a virtual artist talk Thurs., Oct. 6, 7–8 p.m. on Zoom. Registration for the virtual talk is required

The Clare Gallery primarily features exhibitions that emphasize world religions or interfaith themes, as well as social justice themes, on either a global or local level. The Gallery is housed in the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry at 285 Church Street, Hartford, CT. The Center is part of St. Patrick – St. Anthony Church, a vibrant and active downtown faith community.

The Clare Gallery's hours are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays, and Sundays from 9 to 11:30 a.m. The Gallery is open to the public. Free parking is available directly across from the church, and the facility is handicapped accessible. Masks are recommended for entry.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:
The final prophecy in the Book of Isaiah speaks about the end times when God will gather "all nations and tongues" and all the world will finally see the full "glory" of God.
Why do you think this event has been revealed to us?

Second Reading:
Our author of Hebrews speaks of the trials and tribulations of our lives as a "discipline" from God meant to teach and train us.
Can you think of a lesson learned from some difficult situations in your life?

Gospel:
As Jesus continues on his journey to Jerusalem, he teaches the crowds about the urgency to accept his invitation for salvation.
Why do you think so many people lack this sense of urgency for their own salvation?

This Day in History — Aug. 24, 1869

Cornelius Swartwout
(Jul. 25, 1839 – Dec. 17, 1910)
American inventor Cornelius Swartwout was born in Westerlo, New York, and filed an early U.S. patent related to waffle irons.
The earliest waffle irons were not the work of Mr. Swartwout, however. Instead, they originated in the Netherlands sometime in the fourteenth century.
On Aug. 24, 1869, Swartwout was awarded a U.S. patent for an "Improvement in Waffle-Irons," consisting of a novel handle for opening, closing and turning a stovetop waffle iron.
His invention looked nothing like modern electric model waffle makers. Fashioned to sit on wood or gas stoves, his waffle makers had a swivel hinge joined the cast-iron plates in a cast-iron collar.
National Waffle Day in the U.S. is celebrated each Aug. 24 to honor his patent award.

We bet Fr. Mark can make "healthy" waffles to go with his blueberries. Maybe we can celebrate National Waffle Day too!
