25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." - Lk 16:8b, 13

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Human beings are often clever when managing money and making a profit. Sometimes, we place so much of our sense of security in money that we lower ourselves to deceit and fraud. Our need to produce a profit can easily lead to economic injustice and exploitation. Money is necessary to conduct the business of our lives. However, it cannot become the god we serve. Being smart, savvy, and creative with financial wealth can be good. Being smart, savvy, and creative with living out our relationship with God is even better. Our hearts have to find a home somewhere. Jesus reminds us of a choice we must make: God or mammon. We need to be cautious about "selling our souls" to what cannot fully satisfy us and falling into the traps of lust, gluttony, pride, and greed. Instead, we can better direct our efforts and talents to manage God's kingdom, which in the end is the only thing that matters. Any ideas on how we can use the talents and skills God gave us to make for a better world?

Special Collection Next Weekend

On the weekend of September 24/25, Fr. Stephen Mutie, S.A.C., will visit the parish to speak at all the Masses about the missionary work of the Irish Pallottine Fathers in Tanzania, Kenya and Colombia. Father Stephen is looking forward to sharing his missionary experience. A collection will be taken up to support the work of evangelization and development in those struggling countries. Please be generous in your support of their missionary outreach. Learn more about their outreach work at: <https://www.irishpallottines.org/>

Golf Tournament and Fundraising Dinner

REMINDER: The Parish Golf Tournament and Fundraising Dinner is this Tues., Sept. 20 at Glastonbury Hills Country Club. For more information, visit isidoreandmaria.org/golf2022

Sept. 24: 15th Annual Connecticut Catholic Men's Conference

The 15th annual Connecticut Catholic Men's Conference is happening Sat., Sept. 24 at Northwest Catholic High School in West Hartford.

This year's theme is the Most Holy Eucharist. Featured speakers include four nationally known priests who have given up their lives for the Eucharist:

- Bishop Frank J. Caggiano, Diocese of Bridgeport
- Fr. Larry Richards, Diocese of Erie
- Fr. Chris Alar, MIC
- Fr. Wade L. J. Menezes, CPM

Registration is required.

Visit: <https://www.ctcatholicmen.org/> for more information or to register.

“You cannot serve both God and mammon.”

Merriam-Webster defines mammon as material wealth or possessions, especially having a debasing influence. While God does not take issue with our need to use money for the business of our lives, there can be a problem with the attitudes we bring to it. We can easily become so preoccupied and obsessed with money that it becomes the real “god” we worship. Do we serve mammon instead of God? In their book, “Wealth, Riches and Money,” Craig Hill and Earl Pitts outline symptoms of mammon’s influence in our lives. These are worry and anxiety over money, money mismanagement, fear over “never having enough,” an “I can’t afford it” mentality, impulse buying, stinginess, greed, debt, and discontent.

©LPI

Many things on that list can consume us to the point that we are distracted from what we need to do. Many people spend excessive time worrying about money, which becomes the source of their worst fears. If we are honest with ourselves, we must admit that we place far more emphasis on our material securities than we ought. We have convinced ourselves that we cannot live without it. Are we that certain about the presence of God? Many of the world’s problems, especially inequity and in-justice, result from conflicts about money. Many equate money with happiness. Those successful in accumulating large amounts of money quickly realize just how wrong they are.

“Your ultimate allegiance is not to the government, not to the state, not to nation, not to any man-made institution. The Christian owes his ultimate allegiance to God, and if any earthly institution conflicts with God’s will, it is your Christian duty to take a stand against it. You must never allow the transitory evanescent demands of man-made institutions to take precedence over the eternal demands of the Almighty God (Martin Luther King, Jr.)” This is the point Jesus is trying to make. Unfortunately, when we look around, our man-made kingdoms are far more prevalent than God’s kingdom. When we start seeing greater evidence of justice, equity, dignity, respect, opportunity, gentleness, holiness, solidarity, honesty, simplicity, care for creation, and a decrease in ambition, we will then know that God’s kingdom is being served. We will be doing what we are supposed to do.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST: Always Near is Our Father

“Every human being struggles with their relationship with God and struggles with an understanding of what is good. And we find ourselves often on the fence, taking more control over our lives than perhaps is our due, forgetting that we’re really on this life journey with God; that we are not alone.” ~ Father Mark

We are not alone. God the Father is always near us, and it's okay to call out to him for guidance - without exception - whenever we need it. That's the lesson from this week's edition of Father Mark's podcast, “Always Near is Our Father.” Listen at isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts.

2023 Mission Trip Informational Meeting

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The prophet Amos warns those who exploit the poor and the vulnerable will be harshly condemned by the Lord.

In what ways do you defend those marginalized in our society?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches Timothy to be open, generous, and inclusive in his prayer life.

How would you find this spiritual advice a challenge in your life?

Gospel:

In the parable of the dishonest steward, Jesus praises the steward for resolving his dilemma, in the end, with prudence. With his parable, Jesus teaches his disciples an important lesson on the dangers of monetary wealth.

How do you avoid the trap of choosing money over God?

This Day in History — Sept. 22

September 22 is the 265th day of the year in the Gregorian calendar; 100 days remain until the end of the year. It is frequently the day of the autumnal equinox in the Northern Hemisphere.

An equinox is the instant in time when the plane of earth's equator passes through the geometric center of the Sun's disk. This occurs twice each year, around 20 March and 23 September. It is the moment at which the center of the visible sun is directly above the equator.

Autumn, also known as Fall is one of the four temperate seasons. Outside the tropics, autumn marks the transition from summer to winter, in September when the duration of daylight becomes noticeably shorter with cooler temperatures. Day length decreases as the season progresses until the Winter Solstice in December.

Harry, this is the season when squirrels scurry about looking for acorns to store up for winter! Maybe we can help!
