Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

We can be blindly arrogant and selfish. For some, the lens through which we view life is the lens of self-benefit. Having this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no genuine concern. Being self-sufficient and resilient, we can wonder if all of this "God-talk" is for real. What place is there for God if we believe we are solely responsible for our destiny and well-being? Tangible faith requires an actual change of heart, a conversion. It involves walking a courageous journey of transformation that consists of a shift in priorities and focus. Humility becomes the order of the day—an authentic, loving relationship with God blossoms within a person's soul. God becomes an ever-faithful companion. Whether stumbled upon based on messages heard from prophets in our midst or from someone coming back from the dead, faith has to be owned and become something permanent. If we are unwilling to lose the arrogance, any truth-filled message will fall on deaf ears.

Special Collection This Weekend

Irish Pallottine
Missionary Center

Fr. Stephen Mutie, S.A.C., is visiting our parish to speak at all the Masses about the missionary work of the Irish Pallottine Fathers in Tanzania, Kenya and Colombia. Father Stephen is looking forward to sharing his missionary experience. A collection will be taken up to support the work of evangelization and development in those struggling countries. Please be generous in your support of their missionary outreach. Learn more about their outreach work at: <https://www.irishpallottines.org/>

Parish Festival Thank You

Thank you to everyone who made it to last weekend's Parish Fall Festival. It was a glorious day made possible by our Festival planning committee, chaired by Damien Walsh and Erin Sullivan. Thank you to all of the volunteers and sponsors for making it a lovely, community-oriented event. Check out the full photo gallery at isidoreandmaria.org/fallfest2022pics.

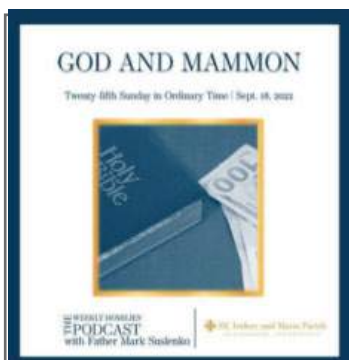

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. Becoming complacent and comfortable with everything life can afford us is easy. Life can become "all about me," preserving my livelihood and protecting my security. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

©LPi

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges." This is perhaps the most incredible contemporary sin in a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities. Our relationships can get skewed when we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived as necessary. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no genuine concern to us. Relying on our merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider that we may be wrong regarding what we see as important. "The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas)." Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we love here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST: God and Mammon

"Mammon is money that has been given too much power and it has a debasing influence. And so in our lives, when we begin to see our securities lying more in what we have around us. When what captures our attention most are the things in our lives we're moving in the direction of honoring something other than God." ~ Father Mark

In his latest podcast, Father Mark outlines what to look for when you think you might be putting more faith in the power of mammon than in the power of God. Listen at isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts.

2023 Mission Trip Informational Meeting

An informational meeting is held on Monday, Sept. 26 at 7pm in the South Wing of St. Paul Church. Any teen currently in grade 8 and above is eligible to attend the 2023 trip. Please contact Donna Berger at 860-633-9419 or donna@isidoreandmaria.org with any questions.

My strength lies in prayer and sacrifice; they are invincible weapons, and touch hearts more surely than words can do, as I have learned by experience. ~ St. Therese of Lisieux

Sing in the parish Gallery Choir

The SS. Isidore and Maria Parish adult choir has returned and it has a new name: "Gallery Choir".

This welcoming group is actively seeking new members. If you sang, sing, or ever wanted to sing in a choir, then the Gallery is for you! It's a welcoming community of folks of all abilities and skill levels, aged high school and up. No previous knowledge or experience is required, just a positive attitude and an eagerness to praise our Lord and lift spirits through music.

Gallery Choir rehearses at St. Paul Church on Wed. nights from 7-9 p.m. The group will be participating mainly at 11:15 a.m. Mass, with warm up starting around 10:30 (following the close of the 9:30 a.m. Mass). If interested, please contact David Garrido-Cid, our parish Music Director, at: david@isidoreandmaria.org or 860-633-9419.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Volunteer Readers Needed!

The Parish Readers Ministry has a need for additional lay volunteers to participate in the proclamation of the Word at all weekend Masses.

A reader is a the person who proclaims the first and second readings at Mass and should be a fully initiated Catholic living in communion with the Church. Individuals who are able to proclaim the readings in a clear manner that expresses the dignity of scripture are usually best suited for this volunteer ministry. Training is required and provided by our parish. Please prayerfully consider volunteering for this ministry and contact Terry Bedard at: tbedard40@aol.com.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The prophet Amos warns those who exploit the poor and the vulnerable will be harshly condemned by the Lord.

In what ways do you defend those marginalized in our society?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches Timothy to be open, generous, and inclusive in his prayer life.

How would you find this spiritual advice a challenge in your life?

Gospel:

In the parable of the dishonest steward, Jesus praises the steward for resolving his dilemma, in the end, with prudence. With his parable, Jesus teaches his disciples an important lesson on the dangers of monetary wealth.

How do you avoid the trap of choosing money over God?

Rin Tin Tin in the film Frozen River (1929)

Rin Tin Tin, a German Shepherd, was rescued from a World War I battlefield by American soldier Lee Duncan, who nicknamed him "Rinty." Duncan trained Rin Tin Tin and obtained silent film work for the dog. Rin Tin Tin was an immediate box-office success and appeared in 27 Hollywood films, gaining worldwide fame. Along with the earlier canine film star Strongheart, Rin Tin Tin was responsible for significantly increasing the popularity of German Shepherd dogs as family pets.

Say Oliver, I think that we have Hollywood Star talent just like our friend Rinty. Just ask Fr. Mark about our "asking for treats" performances!
