Songs of Devotion

About 130 people gathered at St. Paul Church on Sun., Oct. 23 to hear works by Mozart, Mendelssohn and more, as performed by SS. Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

God does not set things in motion or create something and then step back to attend to other matters. When God creates, God remains connected. God's continued and constant presence is necessary for everything we see to exist. Without God, life as we know it would cease. God's imperishable spirit is in all things! Being the author of love, God cannot despise or hate Himself. Therefore, God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. How can God be repulsed by the image of Himself reflected in a human soul? Jesus goes to the homes of sinners. His presence is enough to change even the most conflicted and self-serving hearts. The soul who realizes its utter dependency upon God is a soul who knows salvation. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We find what our selfishness lost.

Coffee And... TODAY (Sunday - Oct. 30)

Faith Formation families from Grades 1 and 2 invite the parish community to stop by the next "Coffee And." It is taking place today (Sun., Oct. 30) immediately following the 9:30 a.m.

Mass in the church library (downstairs).

All are welcome! Please come to meet fellow parishioners and to connect with old friends.

On Tues. Nov. 1 we celebrate The Solemnity of All Saints - A Holy Day of Obligation.

Mass will be celebrated at 7:30 a.m., 12:15 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Please note that we are not holding a Vigil Mass for this Solemnity.

Nov. 5: Wine & Cheese Social

Join your fellow parishioners in the South wing of St. Paul Church following the 4 p.m. Mass on Sat., Nov. 5 (approximately 5 p.m.) for a wine and cheese social. Non-alcoholic options available! All are welcome!

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Our Sponsor Spotlight this week is:

Central Sealing, Inc.

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He often remarked to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any "god." When the chaplain asked why Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it, God's creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, "If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?" The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. "God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?" God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God's unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don't repulse Jesus, and he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God's divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a gift given to us by God. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST:
God Has No Favorites

Whether it's children choosing sides to play a game, siblings vying for the attention of their parents, or professional colleagues positioning themselves for a promotion, there is something about the human condition that moves us to want to be seen as the chosen one - the favorite. But when it comes to our relationship with God, no vying or positioning puts one human ahead of another. Plainly put, God has no favorites, as Father Mark explains in his latest podcast. Listen now: isidore.doreandmaria.org/podcasts

Thank you from the River East Resettlement Alliance

"Forgiveness is the name of love practiced among people who love poorly. The hard truth is that all people love poorly. We need to forgive and be forgiven every day, every hour increasingly. That is the great work of love among the fellowship of the weak that is the human family."

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Wisdom teaches us that the Lord mercifully and lovingly awaits us to stop sinning and return to Him.

What behaviors in your life are holding you back from a deeper relationship with Jesus?

Second Reading:

Paul is concerned that the believers in the city of Thessalonica are being misled by others about the second coming of Christ.

What do you think is an effective way to address any messages that belittle or disregard our beliefs?

Gospel:

Jesus sees in Zacchaeus, the chief tax collector, an opportunity to teach the crowds that as the Son of Man, he has "come to seek and to save what was lost."

Are you included in that description? How does that make you feel?

This Day in History — Oct. 31

Halloween is thought to have roots in Christian beliefs and practices. The name "Halloween" comes from "All Hallows' Eve," the evening before the Christian holy days of All Hallows' Day (All Saints' Day) on November 1 and All Souls' Day on Nov. 2. These days are collectively called Allhallowtide and are a time for honoring the saints and praying for recently departed souls who have yet to reach Heaven.

Halloween activities include trick-or-treating, attending Halloween costume parties, and carving pumpkins into jack-o'-lanterns. For some people, the Christian religious observances of All Hallows' Eve, including attending church services and lighting candles on the graves of the dead, remain popular. However, for others, it is a secular celebration.

Happy Halloween to all our friends!

Wow, Oliver, our costumes should get us a lot of treats this Halloween! Fr. Mark can give us lots of nuts and berries or....Twizells!
