Inspiration for the Week

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

Listen carefully to the Passion of Christ as it unlocks the door that brings us to the true meaning of human life. Holding what seems like opposite polarities of human existence, it weaves us through the highest of triumphs and the darkest of tragedies. As we witness and meditate upon Jesus's last days on earth, we see most vividly that God is present in and through it all. God is not only the glue that holds all of life's seemingly opposing experiences together but the One who offers incredible promise and hope on our road to fulfillment and eternal life. It was only through experiencing the burning agony of suffering's loneliness, and heart-wrenching pain that Jesus experienced the joyful exultation of his resurrected self. There are profound lessons here for all of us to learn.

PODCAST: Fear, Faith, and the Gospel

“Quite often, our faith is reduced solely to negotiating our fears. As it turns out, our biggest fear has nothing to do with our personal agenda but with living the Gospel.”

~ Father Mark

Do you fear living the Gospel? You are not alone. We often let many fears get in the way of living the Gospel. Father Mark explains in his latest podcast.

The Carrying of Crosses

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How — like Simon of Cyrene — can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world? Scan the QR code or visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Women's Retreat: The women of our parish are invited to a retreat at Our Lady of Calvary Retreat Center in Farmington, CT on the weekend of April 14-16. For more information, visit <http://www.ourladyofcalvary.net>.

The Sublime and the Ridiculous

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

Human beings are united in their suffering. When we find ourselves in a painful moment, our first reaction is, “why me?” as if we are the only person on earth who ever encountered this challenge. Going through life with a “why me” attitude only finds us wallowing in self-pity and never seizing opportunities or graces. We walk in solidarity with every human being in the experience of suffering. Believing that the goal of life is the elimination or avoidance of suffering is simply an illusion that keeps us entrenched in a collective myth. This myth distorts us and limits us.

There are living witnesses among us of how courage and determination can overcome hardship, pain, loss, or tragedy. Folks finding the “normalcy” of their lives suddenly torn asunder are faced with an option: opportunity or despair, stay or leave. Jesus stands before us as the prime example of endurance and perseverance. He is the One who guides humanity through the triumphs of life by learning to be humble, and through life’s tragedies and injustices by learning obedience. To secular ears, this may be perceived as nonsense. But, to those with the eyes of faith, they are pearls of great price and time-tested wisdom.

True humility tempers the temptation to become complacent and prevents excessive basking in life’s successes and affirmations. Learning obedience keeps us faithful to our relationship with God so that we can find the courage to endure any hardship, disappointment, betrayal, or agony without succumbing to despair, apathy, or feelings of abandonment. While we may want our cup of suffering to be taken away, it simply cannot be. Somehow and somewhere in the seemingly opposing experiences life can deal us, God is present with his reassuring, compassionate, empowering, and persevering love. To be true to who we are and who God is, we must take up the cross of suffering, even when it’s the most challenging and senseless thing to do.

Only our souls can understand these things as they are timeless. Our minds struggle. We continue to run to secular ideologies, notions, and solutions to pain and hardship. We need to do all we can to eliminate as much senseless, unjust suffering as possible. Hunger, violence, abuse, exploitation, rejection, prejudice, homelessness, disrespect for life, and a host of other sins all result in suffering within our control. Then, when we face uncontrollable suffering or find ourselves to be the victim of injustice, what do we do?

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah speaks of his call and commitment to the Lord, regardless of the suffering he endures.

How do you find strength in your suffering?

Second Reading:

In this hymn describing Jesus, Paul places emphasis on the humility of Jesus.

Would you describe yourself as a humble person?

Gospel:

Listening to the account of the Passion of the Lord often evokes strong emotions for believers.

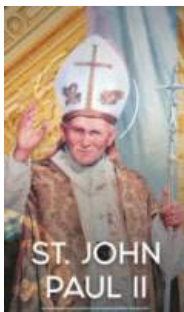

How do you prepare to hear the Passion narrative?

Some people feel guilty about their anxieties and regard them as a defect of faith but they are afflictions, not sins.

Like all afflictions, they are, if we can so take them, our share in the passion of Christ.

- C. S. Lewis

This Day in History — April 2, 2005

St. John Paul II (Karol Wojtyła)

Died April 2, 2005 b. 1920

Cardinal Wojtyła was elected pope on the third day of the second papal conclave of 1978. Wojtyła adopted the name of his predecessor, Pope John Paul I, in tribute to him.

Born in Poland, John Paul II was the first non-Italian pope since Adrian VI in the 16th century and the second longest-serving pope after Pius IX in modern history serving for almost 27 years. John Paul II attempted to improve the Catholic Church's relations with Judaism, Islam, and the Eastern Orthodox Church. By the time of his death, he had named most of the College of Cardinals, consecrated or co-consecrated many of the world's bishops, and ordained many priests. He has been credited with fighting against dictatorships for democracy and with helping to end Communist rule in his native Poland and the rest of Europe.

Pope John Paul II was canonized on April 27, 2014 (Divine Mercy Sunday), together with Pope John XXIII.

Remembering St. John Paul II

Eternal rest grant unto his soul, O Lord.
