

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish

GLASTONBURY, CONNECTICUT

April 23, 2023

Is God a real Being for you or simply an idea to be entertained?

Often, we reduce God to a set of ideas, theories, and principles and neglect to see him as the One who takes joy in helping us understand all life's events and mysteries. God delights in journeying with us and is the only One who can fill us with joy, causing our hearts to burn with excitement and jubilation. He is the One who assists us in recognizing the truth that is before us and interpreting not only the jewels of Sacred Scripture but the events of history. If we recognize God, we can also see that he inspires us to see the divine meaning of our lives. Sometimes it takes us a little time. After all, even his closest friends had to walk with him on the Road to Emmaus before their eyes were opened in the breaking of bread.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

"Faith in the resurrection of Jesus says that there is a future for every human being; the cry for unending life which is a part of the person is indeed answered. God exists: that is the real message of Easter. Anyone who even begins to grasp what this means also knows what it means to be redeemed." ~ Pope Benedict XVI

Who Travels With You?

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

Pope Benedict XVI suggests that "Emmaus is really everywhere; the road that leads there is the path of every Christian, indeed, every human being." From the time we develop the gift of reason, our journeys are adventures that seek to understand the past, find joy in the present, and plot the course for the future. We are constantly in dialogue with ourselves, others, and God. We try to put together the pieces of the past so that we can understand how we came to be where we are today and what we need to do to face tomorrow. We reach for voices that can help us interpret and learn from events and circumstances that have affected us, helping us understand where life has brought us. We need to listen to the right voices as we ponder a pivotal question: where will my life's road end? If we are not cautious, we can easily be deceived.

When we walk through life with our heads held high, spunk in our steps, and eyes twinkling bright with glances to heaven, all is right with the world; it is easier to see God's hand. God's glory dances in myriad ways around us, and His loving presence holds our hand as we exhale songs of praise. When life's disappointments, challenges, and difficulties are in recession, and the warmth of joy's rays are shining on our faces, it is easier to see God's love and guidance. Everything is in sync. But, when sorrow, failure, disappointment, and fear weigh us down, our eyes are fixed downward, and we walk through life looking downcast. We carry heavy burdens. We see not what is above but what is below and easily tire from the sacks we carry. It is harder to see God's love when we are hurting and feeling betrayed or abandoned. Finding meaning in life's ugliness can be an arduous task indeed. We need a discerning eye.

St. Paul church gets a new (to us) organ

The time has come for a significant change to the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish Music Ministry: the installation of a new (to us) organ at St. Paul Church.

The current organ has served St. Paul since the 1970s (1974, according to the account of a seasoned parishioner). The life expectancy of electronic organs of that era was about 40 years. As the organ nears its 50th year, it becomes more prone to failure, and parts are difficult (if not impossible) to find. Maintenance has become burdensome and expensive, and the sound samples, processing, and output are incredibly obsolete. Therefore, the time has come to replace it.

Through the blessings and generosity of parishioners, both past and present, an Organ Fund was established some years ago. Utilizing that fund, and after a recent search and significant due diligence, St. Paul is acquiring a fitting instrument: an Allen organ, model MDS-36. It is a two-manual console with draw-knob stops, 40 main sounds, and many additional options. It will serve St. Paul Church for the foreseeable future until we can invest in a more significant upgrade, at which point this new-to-us organ will be moved to St. Augustine Church to serve the parish at that location.

The organ removal and installation is scheduled for Tuesday, April 25. If you stop by the church that day, you may encounter some hustle-and-bustle as the old organ is hoisted down and the new one up to the choir loft. The process should take the best part of that day.

Anyone interested is welcome to come up to the loft after Masses this weekend (April 22 & 23) to bid farewell to our current organ. You can even play it for a moment!! Similarly, one and all are welcome to see and hear the new organ in action starting the weekend of April 30 or any weekend after that. By the way, the choir loft is always open to visitors (after Mass is best) to learn more about the work of the Music Ministry.

Thank you to everyone for their enthusiastic support of this important liturgical ministry.

Musically, thankfully, in the Joy of the Risen Christ,
David

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Peter's first public speech in Jerusalem focuses on Jesus' connection to King David. In other words, Peter spoke of God's fidelity to Israel in Jesus' resurrection from the dead.

What would you like to know about Jesus' Jewish roots?

Second Reading:

Peter encourages his community to "conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning" (life on earth).

How might you show respect to others this week?

Gospel:

We hear how the two disciples on the road to Emmaus finally recognized the risen Jesus in the blessing and breaking of the bread.

What helps you recognize the presence of Jesus in your life?

This Day in History — April 25

Much of what we know about St. Mark, the author of the Second Gospel, comes largely from the New Testament and early Christian traditions. Mark the Evangelist is believed to be the 'John Mark' referred to in the Acts of the Apostles, the history of the early Church found in the Canon of the New Testament.

According to Christian tradition, Mark also held a close relationship with St. Peter, who referred to Mark as 'his son' in his letter addressed to a number of churches in Asia Minor (1 Peter 5:13). Clement of Alexandria, Irenaeus and Papias all indicate that Mark was an interpreter for Peter. St. Mark lived for years in Alexandria, where he died as a martyr while being dragged through the streets.

St. Mark is the patron saint of our "Father" Mark!
Our Dad is a great writer too!
I bet we get special treats to celebrate too!
