4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out." - Jn 10:2-3

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

©LPI

When you wake up, whose voice is the first you listen to? Your own?

We all listen to someone and follow some guidelines and principles. If it is primarily a secular voice that propels us to get up in the morning and take up the task of the day's agenda, then we may find ourselves off track. The advice found in the Acts of the Apostles was as true then as it is now: "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Most of what we listen to in secular voices are off the axis of truth and distorted. It may sound attractive, but it is, at best, deceptive. Many have gone astray like sheep and must return to the Good Shepherd. Only Jesus can offer us the gate of life, and only Jesus, as the Good Shepherd, can motivate us to take on life's challenges. If we don't recognize his voice, we can risk facing destruction.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

Divine Listening Skills

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

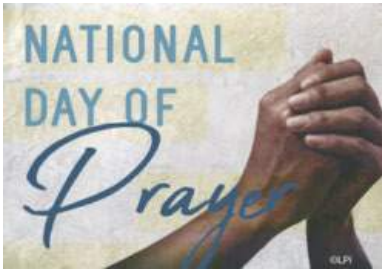

Whom do we converse with and listen to the most? Believe it or not, the answer is ourselves. We constantly have conversations with ourselves- and sometimes, we get caught! Our inner conversations reveal the truth about ourselves. We cannot hide from ourselves, although we often pretend we can. By conversing with ourselves, we find solutions to our challenges, problem-solve, work through our relationships, formulate opinions, run through “dress rehearsals” of possible conversations, and wrestle with and determine our system of priorities and values. What “other voices” affect the conversations we have with ourselves?

Often, negative voices from our past continue to haunt us. These voices cause us to mistrust our judgment, harbor anger, and cling to our fears of rejection, failure, wrongness, and the like. In these inner conversations, we face what holds us captive:

our limitations, weaknesses, sinfulness, and stubborn ego pre-occupations. We often go about our lives putting out one fire or another, keeping ourselves preoccupied and busy and trying to stay on top of things. Intentionally or unintentionally, we find ourselves wandering off. We turn around and can no longer see our “home.” We look down at our feet and realize we have lost our anchor. Feeling scared, out of place, desolate, unsettled, and lonely, we understand we are lost.

We listened to the wrong voices! Amid everything competing for our attention, the voice of the One Person who could truly call us home got muffled. We didn’t hear it! As our inner dialogues continue to play out and the one voice we need to consult, even before our own, is God! He is the Good Shepherd who can keep us safely where we need to be. As we graze through the stuff of our lives, we must constantly re- member to look up, be attentive and stay focused. Our prayer habits are the only thing that can adequately root and keep us grounded. Contemplating God’s presence and developing an inner awareness of Love Incarnate, we will then find our- selves praying unceasingly as the days and nights, ebbs and flows of our lives unfold. Suddenly, our inner conversations are no longer just with ourselves or voices that can lead us astray but with the Trinity of Persons who desperately want us to stay home.

First Call of Prayer in 1775

Because of the faith of many of our founding fathers, public prayer and national days of prayer have a long-standing and significant history in American tradition. The Supreme Court affirmed the right of state legislatures to open their sessions with prayer in Marsh vs. Chambers (1983).

The National Day of Prayer is a vital part of our heritage. Since the first call to prayer in 1775, when the Continental Congress asked the colonies to pray for wisdom in forming a nation, the call to prayer has continued through our history, including President Lincoln’s proclamation of a day of “humiliation, fasting, and prayer” in 1863. In 1952, a joint resolution by Congress, signed by President Truman, declared an annual national day of prayer. In 1988, President Reagan amended and signed the law, permanently setting the day as the first Thursday of every May. The president signs a proclamation each year encouraging all Americans to pray on this day. Last year, all 50 state governors plus the governors of several U.S. territories signed similar proclamations.

"Here is the good news! Risen Jesus is the authentic 'Gospel of life.' He communicates divine life to man, the dignity of a child of God. From the apostles we have received this good news, which we must bring 'to the heart of every man and woman' by placing it 'in the innermost folds of the whole society.'"

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

After his speech in Jerusalem, the crowds asked Peter, "What are we to do?" He replied, "Repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ ... and you will receive the Holy Spirit."

How open are you to receiving the Holy Spirit

Second Reading:

Peter teaches us as followers of Jesus, we are called to be patient when we are suffering. What value do you see in this practice?

How might you show respect to others this week?

Gospel:

Jesus speaks of himself as the gatekeeper for the "sheep" (his followers) who are kept safe from strangers. When have you turned to Jesus in your life in times of trouble?

This Day in History — Cinco de Mayo

Cinco de Mayo is an annual celebration commemorating the anniversary of Mexico's victory over the French Empire at the Battle of Puebla in 1862. Led by General Ignacio Zaragoza, the triumph of a small, poorly equipped Mexican force against the larger and better-armed French army was a morale boost for Mexicans. Zaragoza died months after the battle from an illness, and a larger French force ultimately defeated the Mexican army at the Second Battle of Puebla and occupied Mexico City.

Cinco de Mayo is not Mexican Independence Day, a popular misconception. Instead, it commemorates a single battle. While it is a relatively minor holiday in Mexico, Cinco de Mayo in the United States has evolved into a commemoration of Mexican culture and heritage, particularly in areas with large Mexican-American populations.

Harry and I send best wishes to all our Mexican and Mexican-American friends on this special day of celebration! We will have treats today too!
