7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I revealed your name to those whom you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word." - Jn 17:5-6

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCD. ©ILPI

Being real people of faith comes with a price. Have you ever been seen as unpopular, out of sync, or peculiar because of your faith? St. Peter says, "If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you." If being a Christian comes easy, we should rethink how we approach our faith. Developing habits of prayer, living in accord with the Gospel, setting time aside each week for the practice of our faith, and seeing our relationship with Christ as the center and focus of our families all come with sacrifice. We are going to look different than other folks, and we ought to. We will find ourselves doing less of what we are "supposed to do" and more of what we know we "ought to do or have to do." This often means resisting secular tides and putting our boats into different waters. If this helps us know the one, true God, then so be it. It also brings us to eternal life.

Making a Communications Request

An announcement from Carol Vassar,
Parish Director of Communications

As our parish grows, I receive many inquiries from parishioners about how to begin communicating special parish events, ministry activities, outside community events, or simply refreshing a ministry page on the parish website.

To that end, I'm pleased to announce that a new communications request form is now available on the parish website. It is a simple in-take request form that provides me with the essential information you'd like to have communicated. The form goes directly to my email box for consideration in consultation with Father Mark. If your event or activity is time sensitive, please submit your request as soon as you finalize the date/time/location and no later than three weeks before the scheduled date.

You may access the communications request form You may access the communications request form at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/commform>. Thank you for helping me to help you communicate to our parish community and beyond. Thank you for helping me to help you communicate to our parish community and beyond.

How much is it worth?

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

What does faith and religion do for us? Ultimately, they remind us of some truths we conveniently forget: that we are created by a loving God, we have imperfections and we sin, we need to be forgiven, we have a mission and a purpose, it's not just about us and we hunger for the joy of salvation. These are human truths that are not dependent upon whether we like them. Ignoring them places us on the path of self-created illusions as we blindly pursue the busyness and superficiality of our empty lives. Instead of pursuing supernatural and lasting pleasure, we choose those easier and quicker to obtain: sex, drugs, travel, houses, cars, fame, popularity, self-achievement and satisfaction, physical enjoyment and the like.

We may also find ourselves falling victim to more negative responses to what life brings us: anger, envy, lust, pride, gluttony, greed, and apathy. Human hearts can become so hardened to truth that violence becomes the response of first choice.

Being a Christian is hard! Yet, as Pope Francis reminds us, the church needs to be a field hospital that has to be prepared to provide people with the remedy they need. What we need is Jesus Christ! The church, with all of the glory of the sacraments, exists to help make Christ present and real for us. Once we find Christ, we find joy. Joy is a matter of the heart that is beyond the achievement of pleasure and self-fulfillment. It is not found in some earthly satisfaction, only in Christ.

Once we accept that we are destined to be in Christ, then we will discover eternal life. Namely, "that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." It is easy to conveniently forget truth and pursue illusions immediately within our grasp, but at what price? A man celebrating sixty years of marriage remarked that it took so much effort and so many attempts to convince his wife that they were meant to be together. Even his friends told him he was foolish. He easily could have given up and pursued other interests. He chose to persevere and is so grateful that he made that choice because he now has a pearl of great price. Do we see a value in persevering in our faith regardless of the cost? If we don't take the risk, we could lose more than we know.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

We hear how the eleven apostles and Jesus' family and friends gathered together in prayer "in one accord" in the immediate aftermath of Jesus' resurrection and ascension.

How does your faith in Jesus bring you closer to others?

Second Reading:

Peter acknowledges that you may suffer insults and ridicule for being a Christian.

Has this ever happened to you?

Gospel:

Jesus tells his disciples that "eternal life" belongs to those who know the one true God and Jesus Christ.

Is the idea of "eternal life" impacting how you live your life here on earth?

This Day in History — May 27, 1937

The Golden Gate Bridge is a suspension bridge spanning the Golden Gate, the one-mile-wide strait connecting San Francisco Bay and the Pacific Ocean. The structure links the U.S. city of San Francisco, California — the northern tip of the San Francisco Peninsula — to Marin County. It also carries pedestrian and bicycle traffic and is designated as part of U.S. Bicycle Route 95. Being declared one of the Wonders of the Modern World by the American Society of Civil Engineers, the bridge is one of the most internationally recognized symbols of San Francisco and California. It was initially designed by engineer Joseph Strauss in 1917.

At its opening on May 27, 1937, it was the longest and the tallest suspension bridge in the world, with a main span of 4,200 feet and a total height of 746 feet.
