HOLY SPIRIT
PENTECOST SUNDAY

With Pentecost, the disciples significantly changed. With Pentecost, the disciples significantly changed. They were charged up and ready to go. They received the Holy Spirit and no longer harbored fear and apprehension. They knew who they were and what needed doing. With the peace of the Lord and the power of the Spirit within them, they set out to do amazing things with simple means. We have received the Holy Spirit as well. What keeps us from truly understanding Christ's mission and continuing the Gospel's advancement? Some may think this work is in the past and not relevant now. Others may believe that the work set before us is simply about doing what we must do to merit heaven and has little to do with our brothers and sisters. Take a good look at the world. More people need to hear the Good News than there ever. The gift of the Holy Spirit has been given. Trust that we have the power to get up and out and start doing life-changing things! ~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

Making a Communications Request

An announcement from Carol Vassar, Parish Director of Communications

As our parish grows, I receive many inquiries from parishioners about how to begin communicating special parish events, ministry activities, outside community events, or simply refreshing a ministry page on the parish website.

To that end, I'm pleased to announce that a new communications request form is now available on the parish website. It is a simple in-take request form that provides me with the essential information you'd like to have communicated. The form goes directly to my email box for consideration in consultation with Father Mark. If your event or activity is time sensitive, please submit your request as soon as you finalize the date/time/location and no later than three weeks before the scheduled date.

You may access the communications request form You may access the communications request form at: <http://isidoreandmaria.org/commform>. Thank you for helping me to help you communicate to our parish community and beyond. Thank you for helping me to help you communicate to our parish community and beyond.

The Wind Blows

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

You can feel so small standing by the seashore. The vastness of everything before you expands much farther than your eye can see. What is happening on the other side? As tides continue to ebb and flow, what occurs as they come and go remains a mystery, and the effects of their presence are unknown in your sight. Yet things are moving and changing as you gaze upon the water, as the thumbprint of their existence is left behind. The greater the wind and wave, the greater the effect. But even a gentle breeze leaves its humble mark upon the seashore on which you stand. The tiniest pebble still makes a ripple in the great blue expanse of ocean waters.

You never know the full impact of your smallest gesture or simplest of words. A yes or no, agree or disagree, here or there, this or that can influence time and history in ways you may never know. The Holy Spirit is like that. At the same time fierce and torrential, and then almost still and silent but creating and recreating nonetheless. Coming as a gentle breeze or a gusty wind, God's Holy Spirit continues to move over, around, and into the waters of our lives. The Spirit brings fruit and unknown possibilities to what we humbly bring with us, and that same Spirit brings all to fulfillment, eventually, in Christ.

The first disciples didn't have much. They possessed simple faith and a willingness to go into uncharted territory, a love of their friend God, humble offerings, and a knowledge that they were not alone. These allowed them to do amazing things with very little. Do you believe you are being led and have a purposeful life? We often do not realize our value because we do not think that the little we have is good enough. How wrong we are! A little flour mixed with water embraced by a prayer of blessing transforms simple offerings into the magnificent Eucharistic presence of God! If the Holy Spirit can do such amazing things with these humble gifts of the earth, even more, can happen with you! Don't underestimate the value of the smile you gave a stranger, the door held open for an elderly widow, the listening ear offered to one who was lonely, the tolerance shown to the wounded soul who was angry, and the loving shoulder you provided as a cradle under the head of someone in pain. The Spirit can transform modest gifts offered with love into wondrous blessings you may never know. It's Pentecost. Trust. You are not alone.

Birthright Baby Bottle campaign concludes next weekend (June 3 & 4)

The annual Birthright Baby Bottle campaign concludes next weekend (June 3 & 4). Please return your donation-filled baby bottles from Mother's Day weekend to the Birthright representatives stationed at the church exits after any Mass next weekend. Empty bottles are still available at the church for anyone wishing to fill them with coins or checks for this campaign. We thank you in advance for your generosity!

PODCAST: Home With God

"In a deeply profound spiritual way, you and I struggle with understanding our 'home.' We struggle with staying home with God where we know we belong."
~ Father Mark

Home is where one feels safe, secure, and loved. To say that God is our home means he wholly accepts and protects us. Yet, as humans, we struggle to understand that God is our rock, refuge, and spiritual home, now and always. Father Mark delves into what takes us away from the truth that God as our home – and what can help bring us back into the safety of His arms.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles were able to speak “of the mighty acts of God” in many different languages. This speaks of God’s desire for all believers to be united.

How could you promote unity among those who believe?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of the many different individual gifts of the Spirit that are intended to benefit the larger community. What is the gift you bring to your family or community of friends?

Gospel:

With the power of the Holy Spirit, the resurrected Jesus instructs the disciples with this calling: “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

How strong is your sense of vocation?

This Day in History — May 30

Memorial Day is set aside on our calendars to honor those who have died in our nation’s wars. It originated during the Civil War as Decoration Day when citizens placed flowers on the graves of those killed in battle. After World War I, the day came to be observed for those who died in all U.S. wars. Since 1971, Memorial Day has occurred on the last Monday in May. It is marked by laying a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery and by religious services, parades, and speeches nationwide. Flags, insignia, and flowers are placed on the graves of veterans in local cemeteries. The day also signals the beginning of summer in the U.S.

Oliver and I always remember the great sacrifices made by all who served and now serve our country. That’s why we can run, chase critters and enjoy a peaceful life. Eternal rest grant unto their souls, O Lord.
