This is an opportunity for our church families to have hands-on involvement in a project that saves the lives of unborn children and makes a lasting difference in mothers' lives. Do you understand the true spiritual meaning of hope? Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness. We find it when we place our trust in Christ's promises and rely not on our strength but on the help of the Holy Spirit. Hope, when seen in this way, doesn't set its sights purely on the things of this world but on the promises of God to come. Hope is forever linked to faith and love. Often our hope can become too self-focused on things that matter only to us. Christ's resurrection reminds us that our earthly agendas are not what matter most. What is the reason for your hope? Our Easter season allows us to reassess whether it is the kingdom of heaven and life eternal or something else. ~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST: Do Not Let Your Heart Be Troubled

"Fear is one of our greatest enemies. It keeps us from encountering one another and keeps us from encountering ourselves and encountering God."

Archbishop's Annual Appeal Vicariate Outreach Program

"His Sacrifice, and ours!"

In the spirit of stewardship the Archbishop's Annual Appeal initiated the Vicariate Outreach Program in 1997. The Program offers support to local organizations that, by their efforts, are a meaningful extension of the mission of the Catholic Church and her teachings.

The Archdiocese and the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, has received broad acclaim for sharing more than $20M over the previous 25 years of this effort. With the support of all parish households, we remain enthusiastic about continuing this vital outreach Program this year as well.

If you desire to suggest a worthy local charity for funding by the Vicariate Outreach Program, please contact the parish office. An outreach program of this scope requires following a time-tested process. If you make a suggestion it will be reviewed and considered for nomination – not all suggestions will become nominations as funds are limited. Please be sure to include as much information on the program as possible. Parish nominations are reviewed and confirmed by the Archdiocesan Vicariate Outreach Committee.

Thank you for your concern and generosity.

May 15: Feast Day of St. Isidore the Farmer

May 15 is the feast day of St. Isidore the Farmer, who, with his wife, St. Maria de la Cabeza, are the patron saints of our parish.

St. Isidore (1070-1130) is also the patron saint of farmers and rural communities. Born in Madrid, Spain, he started farming as a young boy when he went to work on the estate of a wealthy landowner from the nearby town of Torrelaguana.

Pious, modest, generous and devout, St. Isidore serves as a model for laborers everywhere. Along with Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, and Philip Neri, St. Isidore is known in Spain as one of the "Five Saints."

Hope Springs Eternal

By Rev. Mark Suslenko

We “hope” for many things: passing an exam, finding our true love, securing sustainable work, or surviving an illness. We often seek to have God be a part of what we hope for and desire, almost trying to convince him that our agenda is ultimately important. While our particular hopes may appear to be what needs to be achieved for us to be happy, they are not. Our lesser, more personal hopes can distract us from true hope.

A powerful message was sent when God became a human being: all that is authentically human is found in the divine. As the human Jesus lived and died to show us that he truly is the universal Christ, we must focus on our eternal truth, destiny, and who we truly are. We must be careful when we allow our earthly concerns to distract us. True hope is found when we trust Christ’s promises and do not rely on our own strength. True hope focuses on striving toward fulfilling God’s promises and not simply achieving what we think we need in this life. Hope always travels with two friends, faith and love. In this trio of virtues, we find the very presence of God born in every human being. These are God’s greatest gifts and lead us to the fullness of his presence.

As with faith and love, we cannot see hope with just our human eyes. We don’t carry this virtue to use solely for our own agenda. Hope is not something that simply comes with the human package. As with faith and love, hope is a gift given to us to draw us closer to our eternal truth. Faith, hope, and love are signs of something far more significant going on in us and something greater to persevere in obtaining. The true divine gift of hope is what will endure any hardship we encounter, especially those that will come from authentically living the Gospel. With all that is happening in our lives, church, and world, what is the reason for our hope? Ask God for the fortitude to see his eternal gift as the reason we get up in the morning and do the things we do.

May 29 at 11 a.m.: Memorial Day Mass at St. Augustine Cemetery

Please join us in celebrating Mass on Memorial Day (May 29) at 11 a.m. at St. Augustine Cemetery. Father Mark will offer this Mass for the more than 350 Veterans for whom the cemetery is the final resting place, for the souls of nearly 3,000 others buried there, and for all men and women who have died while serving in the U.S. military.

Those attending are asked to bring a lawn or folding chair. In case of inclement weather, the Mass will be held at St. Augustine Church.

“There is a terrible hunger for love. We all experience that in our lives - the pain, the loneliness. We must have the courage to recognize it. The poor you may have right in your own family. Find them. Love them.”

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

We hear how through the prayers of Peter and John the Holy Spirit descended upon those Samaritans who believed in Jesus and were baptized.

Can you think of a time when your prayers were answered?

Second Reading:

Peter taught his community to be prepared to defend their faith with gentleness and reverence even in a hostile environment.

Have you ever had to explain what you believe to someone arguing with you?

Gospel:

Jesus assured his disciples, "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." When do you experience Jesus' presence in your life?

This Day in History — May 20, 1950

Armed Forces Day is celebrated on the third Saturday in May, this year May 21, 2022. It falls near the end of Armed Forces Week, which begins on the second Saturday of May and ends on the third Sunday of May.

First observed on May 20, 1950, the day was created on August 31, 1949 to honor Americans serving in the five U.S. military branches – the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy, U.S. Marine Corps, U.S. Air Force and U.S. Coast Guard – following the consolidation of the military services in the U.S. Department of Defense. It was intended to replace the separate Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard Days, but the separate days are still observed, especially within the respective services.

The first Armed Forces Day was celebrated by parades, open houses, receptions and air shows. The United States' longest continuously running Armed Forces Day Parade is held in Bremerton, Washington. In 2019, Bremerton celebrated the 71st Armed Forces Day Parade.

Harry and I honor all who serve in our military service. We especially remember and hold in prayer our parishioners currently serving in the United States military.
