Greeting

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And with your spirit.

Reception of the Holy Oils

Ruth Atwell, Kathleen Blake and Mary Lou Tanski present the oils given to our parish, received at the Chrism Mass this past Tuesday, and blessed by Archbishop Blair.

Renewal of Commitment to the Sacramental Priesthood

Damien Walsh leads our Pastor, Fr. Mark, as well as Fr. Ed, Dcn. Bill Dziatko and Dcn. Steve Weaver in renewing their commitment to the sacramental priesthood.

Conclusion: I now ask all of us gathered here this night to extend our right hands toward our clergy as we ask for God's blessing upon them:

Holy and Compassionate God, let your wisdom, love and strength fill the hearts of Fr. Mark, Fr. Ed, & Dcns. Bill and Steve so that they will continue to find joy in serving you and the people of our parish. As our church community continues to change and demands increase, may they not lose heart and may they remain good, dedicated servants of Christ and the Church. May we, in turn, give them support and the pledge of our love so that they can most effectively accept the duties to which they are called. Keep them holy that we may continue to see in them a path to you. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Renewal of Commitment to the Ministry of the Church

Celebrant: Surrounded by such powerful, prophetic saints, martyrs and witnesses and enveloped by God's enduring, everlasting love for us, let us now renew our commitment to be peacemakers and people who live by the Gospel.

Reader 1: The harvest is ready. Whom shall I send?

Reader 2: Send me, Compassionate God, I am ready to serve You all the days of my life.

All: We will go into the workplace and into the streets and reveal God's saving Spirit through the quality of our lives.

Reader 1: The world is waiting. Whom shall I send?

Reader 2: Send me, Gentle God, I am ready to speak of You all the days of my life.

All: We will preach the Good News by our actions; heal, help, teach, touch, be of good spirit in good times and bad times and live for the glory of God.

Reader 1: The world is hungry. Whom shall I send?

Reader 2: Send me, O God of Justice, I am ready to nourish Your children all the days of my life.

All: We will feed the hungry of body and spirit, break the bread of compassion, distribute the fragments of hope and be fed by the Word within us.

Reader 1: The vineyard is ready. Whom shall I send?

Reader 2: Send me, O God of Love, I am ready to work for You all the days of my life.

All: We will enter into and love the mission of the Gospel and embrace the ministerial needs of our parish. We will actively strive to build a community of love where all can find a home. We will labor for justice and live lives of peace. We will toil to put our personal needs and desires aside and work for the good of our neighbor. And, at each day's end, we will place our lives in your care, O Loving God, ready to awake and begin again.

Celebrant: O God of all times and ages; we gather this night before You and prepare our minds and hearts to celebrate the wonderful gift of Your Son in the Eucharist. We now take a moment to remember and ask forgiveness for the times we have not lived up to the ministry of the Church and when we have not embraced the Gospel call to service.

Stripping of the Sanctuary

From now until the Vigil of Easter, the church ceases to celebrate the sacraments. We wait and walk with Christ until darkness becomes light and the Sacramental Life of the Church is reborn during the Easter Vigil. As the entire sanctuary is stripped, we read Psalm 22 (next page). Remain for a moment of adoration and, then, please leave in silence.

Psalm 22 (read in unison)

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
Why so far from my call for help, from my cries of anguish?
My God, I call by day, but you do not answer; by night, but I have no relief.
Yet, you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the glory of Israel.
In you our ancestors trusted and you rescued them.
To you they cried out and they escaped; in you they trusted and were not disappointed.
But, I am scorned by everyone; despised by the people.
All who see me mock me; they curl their lips and jeer;
they shake their heads at me: “ You relied on the Lord, let him deliver you;
if He loves you, let Him rescue you.”
Yet, you drew me forth from the womb, made me safe at my mother's breast.
Upon you I was thrust from the womb; since birth you are my God.
Do not stay far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.
Many bulls surround me. They open their mouths against me, lions that rend and roar.
Like water my life drains away; all my bones grow soft.
My heart has become like wax; it melts away with me.
As dry as a potsherd is my throat; my tongue sticks to my palate;
you lay me in the dust of death.
Save me from the lion's mouth, my poor life from the horns of wild bulls.
Then I will proclaim your name to the assembly; in the community I will praise you.
You, who fear the Lord, give praise! All descendants of Jacob give honor;
show reverence, all descendants of Israel!
For God has not spurned or disdained the misery of this poor wretch, did not turn away from me, but heard me when I cried out.
I will offer praise in the great assembly; my vows I will fulfill before those who fear him.
The poor will eat their fill; those who seek the Lord will offer praise.
May your hearts enjoy life forever!

Father, Into Your Hands I Commend my Spirit
R. Debruyn

1. You, O God, are my refuge;
in you I shall not be put to shame.
Rescue me, because you are just.
Into your hands I commend my soul.
Save me, save me, my God.
2. By my foes I am hated,
and all those who see me laugh at me.
Everyone runs away from my face.
I am neglected
like the dead in their grave;
broken, forgotten my life.
3. All my life I will trust you,
for you are the God of my heart.
Rescue me from the hands of my foes.
Guard me from those who seek to harm my life.
You, Lord, hold me in your hands.
4. Grant that I may behold you;
redeem your faithful one to life.
Save me in your compassion and love.
You are my strength forever, O God.
Hold fast, all those who love the Lord.

1. My seed was born one bright spring morn in gardens grown by God. Out of the earth my stem gave birth to petals red as blood. The gentle rain my growth sustained, and like each seed God sows, I dreamed one day that I'd be named a king's most precious rose.
2. One day a soldier bent me over, tore me from my bed. All beaten, battered, my stem tattered, wanted not by dead. In cruel hands gripped, my beauty stripped, 'twas not the dream I chose. And filled with shame, I wept in pain, no more a precious rose.
3. Then did I see the soldiers lead a man through palace doors. Was this my king? Why did they bring him in, this man so poor? A purple garment hid the torment none but I could see. They mocked and laughed, gave him a staff, and bowed on bended knee.
4. They bent me round and wove a crown, and place me on his head. My petals found crushed on the ground, like tears of God turned red. With each small sin I was pressed in. I pierced with self-disdain. In thought and deed I made him, my selfishness, his pain.
5. "Behold!" They'd sing, "behold your King, King of the Jews!" [...]

Reception into the Church and Confirmation

It is with radiant joy that we welcome Mara Emily Case into the Church. She is also being confirmed. Alleluia! Congratulations!!

Universal Prayer (Prayer of the Faithful)

All: Loving God, hear our prayer.

Conclusion to the Universal Prayer (All)

Loving God, the resurrection of your Son has destroyed sin and death, bringing us into His radiant light. May the light of Christ's resurrection illuminate our lives so that we can joyfully proclaim the Gospel to a world that still struggles with the darkness of ignorance and sin.

Help us be courageous heralds of the new life of Easter by bringing your gifts of faith, hope and love to all we meet.

Celebrant: Loving God, hear all of our prayers today and those in hearts throughout the world, through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Now the Green Blade Rises

Tune: NOËL NOUVELET

All 1. Now the green blade ris - es from the bur - ied grain,
 Choir 2. In the grave they laid him, love by ha - tred slain,
 All 3. Forth he came at East - er, like the ris - ing grain,
 All 4. When our hearts are win - try, griev - ing, or in pain,

Wheat that in dark earth man - y days has lain;
 Think - ing that he would nev - er wake a - gain,
 He that for three days in the grave had lain;
 Your touch can call us back to life a - gain,

Love lives a - gain, that with the dead has been;
 Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps un - seen;
 Raised from the dead, my liv - ing Lord is seen;
 Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been;

Love is come a - gain like wheat a - ris - ing green.
