Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate deeply, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety, grounds us, and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds to more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace, which is constantly present to us. It's a gift that doesn't need to be earned. Without this anchor of truth, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim this Good News.

Apr. 28: Mass with Archbishop Christopher Coyne

On Sun., Apr. 28 at the 11:15 a.m. Mass we welcome Archbishop Christopher Coyne to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish to celebrate Mass. All parishioners are invited to attend this Mass and reception that follow. Please plan to attend to warmly welcome Archbishop Coyne to Glastonbury.

THIS WEEKEND (Apr. 13 & 14): Blood Pressure Screenings

The Parish Health Ministry is conducting its free monthly blood pressure screening, after the 4 p.m. Mass on Sat., Apr. 13, and after both the 8 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Masses on Sun., Apr. 14. Screenings are held in the conference room of the South Wing of St. Paul Church.

Next Weekend (Apr. 20 & 21): Parish Diaper Drive

The annual Parish Diaper Drive occurs on April 20 and 21 at all Masses.

Diapers of all sizes (and wipes!) are needed. We challenge all households to drop off one box per family.

PODCAST: Transform Me into You!

On Holy Thursday, we celebrated Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, a manifestation of God's persistent love. The transformed bread and wine are truly the Body and Blood of Christ uniting us in Christ's humanity and transforming our mortal natures. It brings us closer to Christ's divinity and humanity - and to his love for us.

Listen today at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

We often act out of ignorance.

Armed with the best intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the whole meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, myopic, incomplete, or erroneous perceptions can impair our judgments and actions. The meaning of life, understanding human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were also opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going well, and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and confusing.

Our faith in God's goodness and love is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. The passion and resurrection of Christ can give us the clear vision we need to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel connected with God, ourselves, others, and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey and we can trust. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us, and around us, bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters, when we are lifted out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "Peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. As they are facing their deaths, some people remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

Retreat. Rest. Rediscover.

Sometimes, you need a bit of a break from the secular world to become closer to Jesus. Consider embarking upon a Catholic retreat. Whether it's for a half-day, full-day, weekend or longer, there are several local Catholic retreat centers, each with a full schedule of on-going day and overnight retreats for individuals and groups. For information on retreat centers and scheduled events, please visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/retreats>.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Peter challenges the religious leaders of Jerusalem who put Jesus to death to repent of their sins and be converted.

Have you ever seen someone have a conversion to the Faith?

Second Reading:

John tells us that we should turn to Jesus, our Advocate, when we sin and fail to keep his commandments.

Can you think of a time when you sought Jesus in a time of need?

Gospel:

The resurrected Jesus taught the disciples how they were witnesses to the Scriptures being fulfilled in his suffering, death, and resurrection and that forgiveness of sins was to be preached in his name. How might you share your faith this week at home or at work?

This Day in History — April 15, 2024

Fr. Mark shares his birthday with Leonardo da Vinci, Jackie Robinson and Roy Clark.

The eraser discovered: On this day in 1770, English chemist Joseph Priestley discovers that a piece of latex can be used to remove pencil marks.

On this day in 1955, Ray Kroc opened his first McDonald's franchise.

Harry and I join our friends at SS. Isidore and Maria in wishing our Dad, Fr. Mark, a very happy and blessed birthday. I bet we will get treats too! Maybe we can help blow out the candles on his "Birthday Salmon"!
