PODCAST: Finding Rest for the Soul

As we celebrate the gift of the resurrection on Easter Sunday, you may wonder what that really means for our souls. How does God's gift of everlasting life take root deep within us and become a promise that we really want to strive for and achieve? Father Mark begins to tackle these questions and more in this edition of his podcast. Listen today at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

Alleluia! Forgiveness has risen from the grave!

What an incredible joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. When experienced, we are moved to do all in our power to avoid sin and embrace the loving presence of our risen God. God stands ever ready to receive us and wants nothing more than for us to come home. How reluctant we are to believe this truth! We want proof, tangible evidence, and absolute assurance that what we have been told is true. Jesus has risen from the dead and brings us peace. The gift of wholeness and holiness is breathed upon us by God's life-giving and healing mercy. May the rays of love that flow from the heart of Christ pierce ours! All we must do is believe! ~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

An Easter Thank You from Father Mark

On behalf of myself, and Deacon Steve Weaver and Deacon Bill Dziatko, I wish to express our profound gratitude to the countless volunteers, staff, musicians, and parishioners for their continued dedication and contributions to making the sacred Triduum and Easter liturgies special and beautiful. Special kudos to the following people for the amazing commitment to all the services of Holy Week: Director of Music Ministries, David Garrido-Cid, our Children & Youth and Gallery Choirs, cantors Emily Walsh, Carol Vassar, Tim Proctor and Adam Giroux, altar servers Patrick Carey, Mark and Tristan Chomick, Cannon and Reminton Varni, Master of Ceremonies Joseph Tokarki, and Altar Server Coordinator Rich Erdhardt. Together, we elevate our liturgy to a higher form of praise to our Risen Lord!

Be sure to enjoy our gallery from Holy Week and Easter, with photos courtesy of Dale Eberhardt and Carol Vassar: <http://isidoreandmaria.org/eastergallery2024>.

Apr. 28: Mass with Archbishop Christopher Coyne

On Sun., Apr. 28 at the 11:15 a.m. Mass we welcome Archbishop Christopher Coyne to SS. Isidore and Maria Parish to celebrate Mass. All parishioners are invited to attend this Mass and reception that follow. Please plan to attend to warmly welcome Archbishop Coyne to Glastonbury.

Celebrated April 8

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart symbolizes the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain our life. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. God's mercy alone allows our hearts to beat and blood to flow through our veins. God's mercy forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, falsehoods, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we find a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do with the rest of today and tomorrow and what we learn. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks on his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering, and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God's mercy and allow the wind of God's presence to kiss your sins and caress your fears. Then exhale peace.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

This Day in History — April 8, 2024

A total solar eclipse will take place at the Moon's ascending node on Monday, April 8, 2024, visible across North America and dubbed the Great North American Eclipse (also Great American Total Solar Eclipse and Great American Eclipse) by some of the media.

A solar eclipse occurs when the Moon passes between Earth and the Sun, thereby obscuring the image of the Sun for a viewer on Earth. A total solar eclipse occurs when the Moon's apparent diameter is larger than the Sun's, blocking all direct sunlight, turning day into darkness. Totality occurs only in a narrow path across Earth's surface. In the United States, totality will be visible best in the state of Texas. The closest areas to us will be in Upstate New York, northern Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine.

Apr. 8 will be the only total solar eclipse in the 21st century where totality will be visible in Mexico, the U.S., and Canada. It will also be the last total solar eclipse visible in the contiguous United States until Aug. 23, 2044.

Oliver and I remind all our friends if you travel to view the eclipse in person, be sure to wear special glasses to protect your eyes; regular sunglasses do not provide protection.
