Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

When it comes to building construction, the cornerstone is the first stone laid, determining how the other stones are placed and the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone, or reference point, so that our lives can be appropriately placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines how we see ourselves and who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we are disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. To be children of God, Jesus Christ must be our cornerstone and the reference point for all we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide us through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pastures. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and self-focus. We can quickly lose our way. If that happens, moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue are challenging to find and even appear unnecessary. We must listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house correctly. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

This Weekend (Apr. 20 & 21): Parish Diaper Drive

The annual Parish Diaper Drive occurs on April 20 and 21 at all Masses. Diapers of all sizes (and wipes!) are needed. We challenge all households to drop off one box per family. For more information visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/diaperdrive2024>.

Any builder worth their salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference point or starting point. Hence, a disordered tapestry of relativism unfolds, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, pursuing love without simultaneously pursuing its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and adequately anchored to the absolute cornerstone.

Jesus is the genuine and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. Only by following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life can we move from being well-grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be easier to find if we listen to the right Voice. When we learn to listen to God's voice, we begin our journey on the road to salvation. Only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding ourselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color our choices and influence our decisions. The foundation of our lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas when we believe that we are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made us, we have this incredible unconditional relationship at our source and discover that we have tremendous significance. Our allegiance is not to ourselves but to our Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a plug into a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite our will to his. There is a cost. We have to give up our life to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. Only when we finally figure this out will the true cornerstone of our lives be laid appropriately, and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

What keeps us in the proper pasture? A life lived and grounded in the church and a close relationship with the sacraments. Only these can guarantee that we remain close to the Good Shepherd and never get lost.

~Rev. Mark Suslenko

cultivating our relationship with Jesus today to find the peace we need to live here now and with Him always. Learn more by listening to Father Mark's latest podcast at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

This Day in History — April 22, 2024

Celebrating the Earth and environment. Earth Day was founded by U.S. Senator Gaylord Nelson as an environmental teach-in first held on April 22, 1970. He hired a young activist, Denis Hayes, as the National Coordinator. Nelson and Hayes renamed the event "Earth Day." Denis and his staff grew the event beyond the original idea for a teach-in to include the entire United States. Over 20 million people poured out on the streets, and the first Earth Day remains the largest single-day protest in human history. Nelson was later awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom award for his work.

The first Earth Day was focused on the United States. In 1990, Denis Hayes, the original national coordinator in 1970, took it internationally and organized events in 141 nations. The official theme for 2024 is "Planet vs. Plastics." 2025 will be the 55th anniversary of Earth Day.

Laudato Si' (Praise Be to You) is the second encyclical of Pope Francis. The encyclical has the subtitle "On care for our common home." In it, the pope critiques consumerism and irresponsible development, laments environmental degradation and global warming, and calls all people of the world to take "swift and unified global action."

Pope Francis teaches us that the Earth and all of creation has the essence of God's Love.

We both love the Earth, especially all the nature in our backyard. I am always sniffing, and Oliver digs to find new friends.

Oliver, I don't know why our Dad always asks me quite loudly to "Get my nose away from there!" I know there are friends to meet under the fence and near the house. My nose tells me so all the time!
