Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

God is love. These three simple words deserve a great deal of attention. They have the power to transform our relationship with God from something static and distant to one that is personal and real. We all know the power of love and how important it is to complete all our lives human and divine circuits. But we only sometimes consider the astonishing fact that it is given to us as a gift and is not simply part of the human package. God is the author of love and love itself. When we genuinely love another human being, it is God being God in and through us. The love to which we are called and the love of which the Gospel speaks is a selfless love that seeks the well-being of our significant others and all our brothers and sisters. This love, which is of God, is a love that will endure all things and bring immeasurable joy when experienced. It is the sincerest form of friendship.

THIS WEEKEND

May 4 & 5: Hospitality Weekend

Get to know your fellow parishioners by joining us on Sat., May 4, following the 4 p.m. Mass for our Hospitality Weekend wine & cheese get-together, or Sun., May 5, following the 11:15 a.m. Mass for our parish coffee social. All are welcome! This is the final Hospitality Weekend until the fall.

2024 Vacation Bible School Registration is OPEN!

Registration is now open for Vacation Bible School (VBS), which will take place at St. Paul Church from Mon., Jun. 24, to Fri., Jun. 28, between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.

Your child is invited to Come to the Table this year at VBS! It's an opportunity for children from age 4 through Grade 5 to learn that everyone is welcome at God's table and hear how Jesus spent a lot of time eating and talking with unexpected people.

The fee is $30 per child, with families also asked to donate food items for the Glastonbury Food Bank.

For more information or to register, visit
<https://isidoreandmaria.org/vbs2024>

"Remain in my love" and "I call you friends" are powerful words in John's Gospel. Most of us have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put great care into preserving, deepening, and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our "failures in love." In doing so, we assume humans are responsible for love's success and failure. While our weakness, emotional composition, and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love's author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus can call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. Having an intimate experience of God's love and friendship propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth, and open avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to the world's problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to the creation, and heal many wounds. We discover joy once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life is. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently, and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends eager to become our friends: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST:

"It really does us well to reflect on and study the lives of folks who have really lived, grafted to the vine of Jesus."

~ Father Mark Suslenko

Father Mark reflects on the teachings of Thérèse of Lisieux, who demonstrated mercy for an unrepentant murderer. Listen to his latest podcast at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The Jewish believers who accompanied Peter to the house of Cornelius were "astonished" that Gentiles who had faith in Jesus also received the gift of the Holy Spirit. Have you ever been surprised by what God has done in your life?

Second Reading:

John teaches us that the essence of God is love and we are called to love one another. Who might you work on loving this week?

Gospel:

Jesus taught his disciples that loving him and loving each other brings "complete joy." What brings you joy in your life?

This Day in History — May 5, 2024

Cinco de Mayo is an annual celebration commemorating the anniversary of Mexico's victory over the French Empire at the Battle of Puebla in 1862. Led by General Ignacio Zaragoza, the triumph of a small, poorly equipped Mexican force against the larger and better-armed French army was a morale boost for Mexicans.

Zaragoza died months after the battle from an illness, and a larger French force ultimately defeated the Mexican army at the Second Battle of Puebla and occupied Mexico City.

Cinco de Mayo is not Mexican Independence Day, a popular misconception. Instead, it commemorates a single battle. While it is a relatively minor holiday in Mexico, Cinco de Mayo in the United States has evolved into a commemoration of Mexican culture and heritage, particularly in areas with large Mexican-American populations.

Harry and I send best wishes to all our Mexican and Mexican-American friends on this special day of celebration! We will have treats today too!
