Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

The immensity, scope, intimacy, and pervasiveness of God's presence is too intense for the human mind. We often limit God by our expectations of him and have a tough time just letting God be God. Some people easily lose faith because God does not meet their expectations. Worse still, the idea of faith is rejected altogether by others because of polarities and experiences they have that do not square with who they need God to be. The Holy Trinity is one of those teachings that is best encountered rather than dissected. Only through being present with the Trinity can we experience both the immensity and otherness of God's presence and the intimacy of the God who wants us to call him Daddy. We feel the loving guidance of a God who wants to take us from fear and give us confidence. Our God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow is a God of all ages whose three-fold Presence invades all senses, seasons, and times. God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is much more than any of our expectations if we simply let God be who God is.

Celebrating the Saints This Week

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do.

Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God to unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators, making God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. What is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman felt invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband. She struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying; I am here among you as one but three, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Yet many people seldom notice God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create does not produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships are not built on making someone do what we need them to do. Healthy relationships are built on encounters with persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Whether you believe it, God does for you! A joyful laughter gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. This laughter, flowing from the depths of the Godhead, not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

It is possible to get so caught up in God's presence that we almost feel playful or giddy. We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest creatures suddenly radiate God's fullness: the wonderful creation of their Being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him Daddy and the same God who preserves your life and has all things in his care.

Our parish was filled with the Holy Spirit last weekend (May 18 & 19) as we celebrated the Feast of Pentecost. From sneakers to sweaters to ties, shirts and dresses, it was a sea of red, the liturgical color for Pentecost, symbolic of the burning fire of God's love and the tongues of fire that descended on the apostles. See the full photo gallery at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/pentecost2024>.

Jun. 20: Parish Book Club

This Day in History — May 27, 2024

Memorial Day (originally known as Decoration Day) is a federal holiday in the United States for honoring and mourning the U.S. military personnel who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces. From 1868 to 1970, it was observed on May 30. Since 1971, it has been observed on the last Monday of May.

Many people visit cemeteries and memorials to honor and mourn those who died while serving in the U.S. military. Many volunteers place American flags on the graves of military personnel in national cemeteries. Memorial Day is also considered the unofficial beginning of summer.

The first national observance of Memorial Day occurred on May 30, 1868. Then known as Decoration Day, the holiday was proclaimed by Commander in Chief John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic to honor the Union soldiers who had died in the Civil War. Many cities and people have claimed to be the first to observe it. However, the National Cemetery Administration, credits Mary Ann Williams with originating the "idea of strewing the graves of Civil War soldiers — Union and Confederate" with flowers.

Eternal rest grant unto their souls, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.
