DONATE TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Through the generosity of the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish community, 72% of our financial target has been met. All are encouraged to consider a gift that is appropriate for them; let's work together to exceed our parish goal. Donation packets are at the doors of the church, or you may make your donation online at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>. Thank you for your consideration.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Many people will often give their allegiance to something until it challenges us or asks us to do something radical. Then, they rethink whether they want to be associated with it. The same holds for God. Either we serve God, or we don't. There can be no lukewarm stance about faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God's kingdom, love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, and trust that the Eucharist is, in fact, Jesus' very Body and Blood. For some, buying into these things may prove too difficult, and returning to a life without them is preferred. But truth is truth, and it can only be found in God. If we find it hard to accept it from the mouth of Christ, where else can we go to find it? The task before us is to commit to the truth even when it may be easier to pursue something else. Truth is always worth obtaining, even when it is difficult. Jesus offers us the truth of life, a life found in his flesh and blood, and a life of discipleship.

Summer Pop-Up Choirs are here!

What's a pop-up choir? It's a spontaneous gathering of parishioners wishing to sing together in the choir loft during Mass. No experience is required, and there's no need to RSVP. Just bring your joy-filled voice for a brief rehearsal before one of the following Masses:

- Pop-up Children & Youth Choir (through high school)
Sat., Aug. 24 at 4 p.m. (rehearsal at 3:15 p.m.)
- Pop-Up Gallery Choir for Adults
Sun., Aug. 25 at 9:30 a.m. (rehearsal at 9 a.m.)

Questions? Reach out to David Garrido-Cid, Director of Music Ministries, at david@isidoreandmaria.org. We hope to see you in the choir loft soon!

Regina's Writings: Tell the Stories

Each of us has a story to tell about how our faith came to be. Sharing those stories can provide a beacon of faith for others, according to M. Regina Cram. Read Regina's latest column on the subject here:

Altar Flower Offerings

Aug. 24 - Aug. 30, 2024

In Loving Memory of Rodolfo Caranfa requested by his Family

In Loving Memory of David Connelly requested by wife, Julia

“Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods.” We struggle with our gods. They appear in money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these “gods” because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? Once we buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, why is it not worth setting other things aside to pursue it? In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with “who is God” and “to whom do we belong” is real, and we can easily find ourselves feeling empty and experiencing disillusionment if not correctly discerned.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised “more.” But in pursuing what gives us earthly security and power and satisfies our egos, we lose track of the cost of those pursuits, and that cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in the quest for something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only “feels” true. While the true and real God promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance about faith. If we are completely convinced of our belief in God, then our faith in Jesus Christ requires that we do some difficult things. We must work in service of God’s kingdom - not our own, love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, die to ourselves to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are difficult things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many who may be attracted to Jesus at first walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods they self-created.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one Source of truth and life: Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life, and if we do not go to him, where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal, which requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find our true selves through the Body and Blood of Christ, we are connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It’s a choice we all have to make.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

Our parish has grown tremendously since the post-COVID-19 resumption of in-person Masses. I know this simply from looking out at all the new faces I see when I celebrate Mass with you throughout the week. To all new to our parish, please know you are welcome and loved.

I believe it is important for people to have a relationship with their parish, pastor, and Pastoral Staff. It is also important for people to know that their presence and needs matter. While it is virtually impossible to know everyone’s name, it is possible to know something about you: where you come from, your hopes and expectations, what you seek, and what you need. Having this information goes a long way in helping me and our Pastoral Staff more effectively minister to our parish.

That’s where you can help! If you are new to worshipping at SS. Isidore and Maria Parish, or perhaps have been here awhile and would like a stronger connection to our community, I hope you’ll help me get to know you by visiting <http://isidoreandmaria.org/gettingtoknowyou> and answering a few simple questions about yourself. This is NOT a registration with the parish - it is an opportunity to create a relationship between our parish and those who call it home. If you’d like to submit this information to the parish office, please take one of the pamphlets now available at the entrances to St. Paul Church (pictured) and fill it out at your leisure. You may return it via the collection kiosks or directly to the parish office at St. Paul Church any weekday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Thank you for helping me and my staff to serve you to the best of our ability.

ImmaCare Inc.

The next ImmaCare dinner is on Fri., Sept. 13. All are welcome to participate by preparing food or helping to deliver and serve our meals at the shelter.

In addition, ImmaCare’s Outreach Program continues to seek food to supplement its street outreach program, which provides nourishment five days each week to the unhoused living on the street, in abandoned buildings, or wherever shelter can be found. A list of needed items is available on the parish website. Our parish’s next pickup is on Thurs., Sept. 5. Items may be left at either St. Augustine Church or St. Paul Church. For more information or to volunteer, visit <https://isidoreandmaria.org/immacare>.

Coming in September

UPDATE: Glastonbury Roman Catholic Parishes Fall Festival!

Here's where we stand with planning the 2024 Glastonbury Roman Catholic Parishes Fall Festival, on Sun., Sept. 15, at the Elks Club, 98 Woodland St., from 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.:

- Raffle prizes: Anyone interested in donating a raffle prize can drop off a gift card at the parish office, or by placing the card in the offertory kiosks in an envelope marked "Fall Festival."
- Desserts: Anyone interested in donating a dessert item should email Dottie Horan or call 813-695-7339.
- RSVP: If you and your family plan on attending this year's Fall Festival, let us know at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/fallfest2024RSVP>. Your RSVP helps our organizing committee get a headcount to order food and drinks for all!

Brannock Device

Charles F. Brannock patents the popular shoe-size measuring device. It would become the world's most popular shoe-size measuring device and could be found in use in thousands of stores. Brannock invented the instrument in 1925 and managed the company that manufactured the devices until his death at age 89 in 1992. Brannock was inducted into the National Inventors Hall of Fame in 1992.

Harry, look. . . I found these shoes outside. Let's measure them and see if they will fit Fr. Mark. I don't think so, Oliver. Fr. Mark is very particular about his shoes. We will have to find a real nice pair for him!
