Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

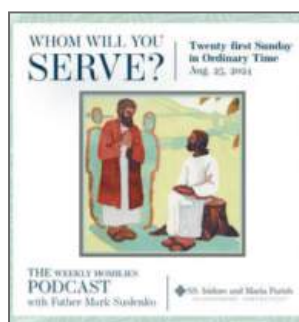

What makes a person wise and intelligent? What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly, it is different from the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. A person is wise and intelligent when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even take the right actions, but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that if we are "doing" everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of God's goodness, mercy, compassion, and love, they are empty, worthless gestures. Welcome the Word planted within you so you can be a wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ.

PODCAST:

Whom Will You Serve?

Deep within ourselves, we want to know the meaning of life. Deep within our souls, God tells us, "I created you. I fashioned you. I loved you, and I placed you in this world, in this time, for a particular reason, to do a particular thing." But the world and what it has to offer often distract us. As humans, though, we must decide whether to listen to God or the world. It's all part of Father Mark's latest podcast, now available at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

September Prayer Intention from The Holy Father For the cry of the Earth

We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules, and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospel demands creativity to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top-down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well-respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside to attend to what mattered. God’s compassion, mercy, and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and the passing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of more significant concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true hearts and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed?

Here enters the need for imagination and discernment and the distinction between being wise and intelligent. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. Courage requires setting our agendas aside. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than taking measures to secure our crumbling foundations. At least on the outside, we looked nicely polished.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

Our parish has grown tremendously since the post-COVID-19 resumption of in-person Masses. I know this simply from looking out at all the new faces I see when I celebrate Mass with you throughout the week. To all new to our parish, please know you are welcome and loved.

I believe it is important for people to have a relationship with their parish, pastor, and Pastoral Staff. It is also important for people to know that their presence and needs matter. While it is virtually impossible to know everyone’s name, it is possible to know something about you: where you come from, your hopes and expectations, what you seek, and what you need. Having this information goes a long way in helping me and our Pastoral Staff more effectively minister to our parish.

That’s where you can help! If you are new to worshipping at SS. Isidore and Maria Parish, or perhaps have been here awhile and would like a stronger connection to our community, I hope you’ll help me get to know you by visiting <http://isidoreandmaria.org/gettingtoknowyou> and answering a few simple questions about yourself. This is NOT a registration with the parish - it is an opportunity to create a relationship between our parish and those who call it home. If you’d like to submit this information to the parish office, please take one of the pamphlets now available at the entrances to St. Paul Church (pictured) and fill it out at your leisure. You may return it via the collection kiosks or directly to the parish office at St. Paul Church any weekday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Thank you for helping me and my staff to serve you to the best of our ability.

ImmaCare Inc.

The next ImmaCare dinner is on Fri., Sept. 13. All are welcome to participate by preparing food or helping to deliver and serve our meals at the shelter.

In addition, ImmaCare’s Outreach Program continues to seek food to supplement its street outreach program. A list of needed items is available on the parish website. Our parish’s next pickup is on Thurs., Sept. 5. Items may be left at either St. Augustine Church or St. Paul Church. For more information or to volunteer, visit <https://isidoreandmaria.org/immacare>.

The International Day of Charity is an international day observed annually on Sept. 5.

It was declared by the United Nations

General Assembly in 2012. The prime purpose of the International Day of Charity is to raise awareness and provide a common platform for charity related activities all over the world for individuals, charitable, philanthropic and volunteer organizations for their own purposes on the local, national, regional and international level.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Moses urged Israel to follow God's commandments, in order to become a "great nation," filled with "wise and intelligent people." Where do you see our nation following God's commandments?

Second Reading:

James sees religion at its best when it cares for those on the margins of society and resists the false trappings of the world. How might you help someone less fortunate than you this week?

Gospel:

Jesus challenged the Pharisees and scribes of Jerusalem on how they interpreted traditional Jewish purity laws. What do you think helps someone have a "clean heart?"

This Day in History - Labor Day—Sept. 2, 2024

One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God's continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God's ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. Labor Day offers an excellent opportunity to reflect on how we view work in light of our Catholic social teaching.

Happy Labor Day!
