Sept. 21/22: HOPES Collection

The HOPES (Help Our Parish Educators & Students) Collection annual collection takes place in our parish on the weekend of Sept. 21 and 22. This fundraiser supports Catholic elementary schools in the Archdiocese of Hartford. The most vital resource in every Catholic school is its dedicated teachers. Their profession is avocation. This collection provides new revenue sources to offer teachers a just wage, ensuring quality education, enthusiasm, and stability. We ask you to join us in supporting our children by supporting their teachers. HOPES means brighter futures for all our children by enabling us to keep tuition affordable for families. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Most of us were taught that God would love us if and when we change. In fact, God loves you so that you can change. What empowers change, what makes you desirous of change is the experience of love. It is that inherent experience of love that becomes the engine of change. ~ Richard Rohr

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God, and you are you; this is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing deep insight not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all our relationships with a richer appreciation and learn who Jesus, who speaks of God's kingdom, really is. The trust fostered by resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God's ways are not ours. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that even in suffering, the radiant light of the dawn will come. God's ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the why of such experiences. However, God's eyes and mind reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see.

Connecticut Catholic Men's Conference 2024

Join us on Sat., Sept. 21, at Northwest Catholic High School for a day that deepens and enriches your faith journey, where each year attendees' spiritual growth is magnified. The theme, "The Four Last Things: Death, Judgment, Heaven, Hell," will be explored by dynamic speakers. The event includes a special procession of over 24 Saint reliquaries, Eucharistic Adoration, Exhibitors, Confession, and closes with Mass celebrated by Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne. Doors open at 7:30am, event begins at 8:30am, concluding with the Vigil Mass. Tickets are $45 for adults and $30 for Teen Ticket (13 to 19 yrs old).

Visit www.ctcatholicmen.org for tickets and details.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Oct. 1: Solemn Celebration of Evening Prayer with Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

Join us on Tues., Oct. 1 at 6:30 p.m. at St. Paul Church for the next Solemn Celebration of Evening Prayer and Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This service is an hour of traditional prayer and music. It includes the recitation of The Liturgy of the Hours and the Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. It is a wonderful opportunity to focus on Jesus Christ and his presence in the Eucharist.

PLEASE NOTE: Tuesday night Rosary will not be held on Oct. 1 at St. Augustine Church so the parishioners may attend this special evening of prayer.

Our Lady of Sorrows
SEPTEMBER 15

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone.

Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter: "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even as one of Jesus' closest friends, he struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955), a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest, often has these words attributed to him. "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they indeed mimicked his thoughts. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this worldview, they struggle to find any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation that is brought to things is that my spiritual life helps avoid pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives us the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. God inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human venues. It is not our task to understand the complete picture of God, as God is beyond full human comprehension. Ours is the joyful privilege of prayerfully resting in God's presence simply because God is God, and we are who we are. It's how things are pure and simple. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, doing so is in our DNA. Through prayer, we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then find them.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Isaiah stands firm in his faith as he suffered in following God's call. Can you think of a time when you supported someone in their faith?

Second Reading:

James believed that good works are the fruit of faith. Where is there a need for good works from you this week among family or friends?

Gospel:

Jesus reveals to his disciples that as the Messiah, he is destined to suffer greatly and die, but on the third day, rise from the dead. This was difficult for Peter to accept. How do you stay open to ideas you resist?

Jacob Schick

Father of Electric Razors — Colonel Jacob Schick September 16, 1877 – July 3, 1937

American-born Canadian inventor. Known as "The Father of Electric Razors," he patented his electric razor (1928) and formed the Schick Dry Shaver, Inc. razor company.

The patent application stated, "The invention is designed to provide a shaving implement that does not require the usual prior application of lather, or its equivalent to the face as the cutting of the hair can be done while the face and hairs are comparatively dry."

Schick became a Canadian citizen in 1935 to avoid an investigation for tax evasion after he moved most of his wealth to a series of holding companies in the Bahamas.

So, Harry. . .which one of us needs a shave? Did you know there is a shaver named after YOU!
