

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish

GLASTONBURY, CONNECTICUT

October 13, 2024

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"All things are possible for God." - Mark 10:27

Oct. 19 & 20: Mass parking during the Glastonbury Apple Harvest & Music Festival

The 49th Annual Glastonbury Apple Harvest & Music Festival takes place from Oct. 18 - Oct. 20. This will impact parking in the St. Paul parking lot for ALL MASSES on Sat., Oct. 19, and Sun., Oct. 20.

To accommodate all parishioners who wish to attend Mass that weekend, we ask that you please enter the St. Paul parking lot via the North side entrance on Main Street (closest to the CVS).

The Welles Street entrance to the parking lot will be CLOSED, and LIMITED PARKING will be made available to those parishioners requiring handicapped access via the South entrance on Main Street. Church volunteers will be stationed at all entrances to ensure you have access to parking at Mass time. Please plan a few extra minutes of travel time to your regular schedule, as traffic will be heavy.

Oct. 14: Investiture of the Pallium

On Mon., Oct. 14 at 11 a.m. at the Cathedral of St. Joseph, the Archdiocese of Hartford celebrates the Investiture of the Pallium, to be bestowed upon Archbishop Christopher Coyne by the Apostolic Nuncio to the U.S., Christophe Cardinal Pierre. A reception will follow. If you would like to attend please email the parish office, or call 860-633-9419.

THIS WEEKEND

Oct. 12 & 13: Hospitality Weekend Resumes

Get to know your fellow parishioners by joining us on Sat., Oct. 12, following the 4 p.m. Mass for our Hospitality Weekend wine & cheese get-together, or on Sun., Oct. 13, following the 11:15 a.m. Mass for our parish coffee social. All are welcome!

Oct. 12 & 13: Blood Pressure Screenings

The Parish Wellness Ministry is conducting its monthly FREE blood pressure screening after the 4 pm Mass on Sat., Oct. 12, and after the 8 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Masses on Sun., Oct. 13. Screenings are held in the conference room of the South Wing at St. Paul Church.

Sun., Oct. 13
Grades 4-8
Online Program:
regular weekly submissions due by Friday.

For a more detailed report please visit our website under the ABOUT tab. The monthly accountability reports can be found in the Financial Accountability folder.

Check donations should be payable to: Saints Isidore and Maria. For online giving, go to our website and click on the DONATE tab. Thank you.

2024 Parish Annual Collection Now Underway

The 2024 Parish Annual Collection is now underway. Please read Father Mark's letter on this effort and make your online donation at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/annualcollection24>.

Through the generosity of the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish community, 72% of our financial target has been met. All are encouraged to consider a gift that is appropriate for them; let's work together to exceed our parish goal. Donation packets are at the doors of the church, or you may make your donation online at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>.

Thank you for your consideration.

Youth/Children's Choir (ages 6 and up) rehearses at 5 p.m. by the piano; Gallery Choir (older teens and adults) meets at 7 p.m. in the choir loft. Both groups meet at St. Paul Church. For more information, email David@isidoreandmaria.org.

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics will not be enough. That love will want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

Volunteer Opportunities

Our parish ministries and community efforts run on volunteer power! Your help is needed in a variety of areas, including:

Oct. 19 & 20: PARKING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteers are needed to monitor the church entrances on Sat., Oct. 19 and Sun., Oct. 20th during the Glastonbury Apple Harvest and Music Festival.

There are 4 shifts available:

- Sat., Oct. 19 from 10 a.m. - 12 noon
- Sat., Oct. 19 from Noon - 3 p.m.
- Sat., Oct. 19 from 3 p.m. - 5 p.m.
- Sun., Oct. 20 from 9 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

If you are available to help, please contact Damien Walsh at 860-430-9608.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

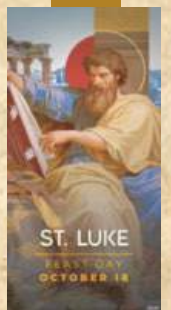

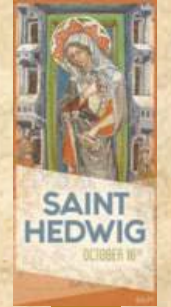

Our Sponsor Spotlight this week:
Glastonbury Oil Company

"I am not sure exactly what heaven will be like, but I know that when we die and it comes time for God to judge us, He will not ask, 'How many good things have you done in your life?' rather He will ask, 'How much love did you put into what you did?' ~ St. Teresa of Calcutta

We welcome parishioners to add prayer intentions for family members free of charge in the bulletin for one (1) month. To do so, please contact the parish office at 860-633-9419 or contact@isidoreandmaria.org. We cannot publish the names of friends. Thank you for your understanding.

November 2 is the Feast of All Souls. This is traditionally the time of year when we remember our loved ones and all souls who have departed this life. This time of prayer helps us not forget that we are still connected with them and united with God. Remembrance envelopes for All Souls Day, Nov. 2, are now in your offertory packets and at the entrances of St. Paul Church. The envelopes will be placed on the altar, and the deceased will be remembered throughout November.

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!
(Ps 90)

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics will not be enough. That love will want to be expressed in going above and beyond, leaving the comfortable and familiar, stretching and growing, and following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different from us if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listening to another person’s story, we begin to realize how similar we are. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. Only the gift of wisdom and discernment can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through a city portal weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. The baggage must be removed so the animal can fit through the entryway. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic worldviews, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest our- selves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work, and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that much of that stuff is necessary, it is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us; we are more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

It was a beautiful day to honor St. Francis of Assisi with the annual parish Pet Blessing last Saturday (Oct. 5) at St. Paul Church. Visit <https://isidoreandmaria.org/petblessing24> to see the full gallery of dogs of all shapes, sizes, and energy levels.

Hoodie Sale to Benefit Glastonbury Food Bank

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish is holding a hoodie fundraiser!

These warm, comfortable navy-blue hoodies are embroidered with the parish logo, allowing wearers to express their connection to their faith community. Available in small, medium, large, and extra-large, these hoodies make great gifts, too! The cost is $50 per hoodie, with proceeds from this sale benefiting the Glastonbury Food Bank. Arrival is expected before Christmas! For more information or to order yours, visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/hoodies2024>.

Regina’s Writings: Alone With My Other True Love

Whether for a moment, a minute, an hour, or day, visiting Jesus where he resides in the Church tabernacle can be a transformative experience. Read about how M. Regina Cram experiences it in her latest column, Alone With My (Other) True Love, now available at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/2024/09/30/reginas-writings-alone-with-my-other-true-love/>.

Oct. 24: Bereavement Facilitator Training Workshop

A Bereavement Facilitator Training Workshop takes place on Thurs., Oct. 24, from 9 a.m. - 12 noon at St. Paul Church in Classroom 1 near the Parish office.

This training workshop is for anyone looking to volunteer to become a New Day Bereavement Facilitator. The workshop will provide direction in developing bereavement groups within the parish, planning and guiding group sessions, and making human connections that can help to mend broken hearts. Registration is required. To register, visit https://isidoreandmaria.org/bereavement_facilitator, email bereavement@isidoreandmaria.org, or call the parish office at 860-633-9419.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading: We hear how Solomon prayed for and received the virtues of prudence and wisdom.
What are you praying to the Lord for these days?

Second Reading: Hebrews teaches us that "the word of God" knows and understands what is in our hearts and minds. Do you find this comforting or unsettling?

Gospel: Jesus taught his followers that excessive wealth and possessions can impact one's priorities in life.
What are some practical ways to keep Jesus as a top priority in your life?

This Day in History - Oct. 17, 1979

The Nobel Peace Prize is one of the five Nobel Prizes established by the will of Swedish industrialist, inventor, and armament manufacturer Alfred Nobel, along with the prizes in Chemistry, Physics, Physiology or Medicine, and Literature. Since March 1901, it has been awarded annually (with some exceptions) to those who have "done the most or the best work for fraternity between nations, the abolition or reduction of standing armies and the holding and promotion of peace congresses."

Mother Teresa is awarded the Nobel Peace Prize

"To this love for one another, and today when I have received this reward, I personally am most unworthy, and having avowed poverty to be able to understand the poor, I choose the poverty of our people. But I am grateful, and I am very happy to receive it in the name of the hungry, of the naked, of the homeless, of the crippled, of the blind, of the leprous, of all those people who feel unwanted, unloved, uncared, thrown away of the society, people who have become a burden to the society, and are ashamed by everybody. . .In their name, I accept the award."
