"See that I am God. See that I am in everything. See that I do everything. See that I have never stopped ordering my works, nor ever shall, eternally. See that I lead everything on to the conclusion I ordained for it before time began, by the same power, wisdom and love with which I made it. How can anything be amiss?" ~ Julian of Norwich

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." These words of St. Augustine are timeless. Every human being would undoubtedly profit from wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. There is only one way to satisfy the deepest longing of the human heart, which is in relationship with our Creator. When we seek God with genuine sincerity of heart, and God passes us along our way, we will cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" We will instinctively know that only our Divine Master can restore our sight and heal us. The blind man fell in love with Jesus, embarked upon this life-saving adventure to reach him, and achieved a goal many have only remotely thought possible. That is mercy in action. No matter how far we stray or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console, guide, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him with all our hearts.

The Solemnity of All Saints is a feast in the Catholic Church that was originally instituted to honor the Christian martyrs of the late Roman Empire. Although we often associate martyrdom with events of the past, violent persecution of Christians is still happening at an alarming rate in modern times in many countries. Therefore, in praying for the martyrs of ages past, let us also pray for suffering Christians around the world who continue to be persecuted in this day and age for following Christ.

Nov. 3 - 9: National Vocations Awareness Week

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country Nov. 3-9, 2024. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, consecrated men and women, and marriages. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation. Learn more at <https://isidoreandmaria.org>

THE LORD HAS DONE GREAT THINGS FOR US; WE ARE FILLED WITH JOY. (PS 126)

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, only then will we be able to cry out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" We must truly want to be healed by and in union with God so that we can reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real for faith to be real. It's all about the journey.

St. Augustine reminds us that "to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." We strive after many things, and mercy is not always one of them. We think we can find fulfillment and healing in other things, only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment humans were created, God has been calling and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point, we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the human heart's deepest longings, which is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the massive error of thinking that what we hear comes from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would undoubtedly profit from wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong.

Only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God's mercy is always available. It doesn't matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become; God patiently waits to console, guide, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God's, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST: God is the Glue

Anyone who loves well and loves with pure intent always dissolves themselves, becoming less so that what they have loved can become more. So it is with God's unconditional love, which is the glue that holds together everything we know and experience. Father Mark explains on his latest podcast, available at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts/>.

The Day of the Dead (Spanish: el Día de los Muertos) is a holiday traditionally celebrated on Nov. 1 and 2. The multi-day holiday involves family and friends gathering to pay respects and remember friends and family members who have died. These celebrations can take a humorous tone, as celebrants remember amusing events about the departed. It is widely observed in Mexico, where it largely developed, and is also observed in other places, especially by people of Mexican heritage. The observance falls during the Christian period of Allhallowtide. (All Saints' Eve (Halloween), All Saints' Day (All Hallows') and All Souls' Day).

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Jeremiah speaks of a joyful future awaiting those Israelites who were in captivity in Babylon.

What are some things you are looking forward to with joy?

Second Reading:

Hebrews teaches us that God glorified Christ by making him the eternal "high priest."

What are some gifts you have received from God?

Gospel:

The blind man, Bartimaeus, pleaded to Jesus and Jesus healed him saying, "your faith has saved you."

What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord?

This Day in History - Oct. 31

Halloween is thought to have roots in Christian beliefs and practices. The name 'Halloween' comes from "All Hallows' Eve", being the evening before the Christian holy days of All Hallows' Day (All Saints' Day) on November 1 and All Souls' Day on November 2. These days are collectively called Allhallowtide and are a time for honoring the saints and praying for recently-departed souls who have yet to reach Heaven.

Halloween activities include trick-or-treating, attending Halloween costume parties, and carving pumpkins into jack-o'-lanterns. For some people, the Christian religious observances of All Hallows' Eve, including attending church services and lighting candles on the graves of the dead, remain popular, although for others it is a secular celebration.

Wow, Oliver, our costumes should get us lots of treats this Halloween! Our Dad can give us lots of nuts and berries and...our favorite treats!! It is the day of Trick or Treat!

Happy Halloween
