Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest."

- Luke 19:38

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Hailed one moment and rejected the next. This seems to be the pattern that repeats itself not only throughout history but in our own lives as well. Jesus wants to be triumphantly welcomed into our hearts with joy! And welcome him we do! Then come the times when we do precisely the opposite, reject the teachings of the Gospel, and turn our backs on God's friendship. The one who at one time is a friend now becomes an enemy. Jesus understands our ambivalence. He lived it on the way to the cross. Understanding the full array of human emotions, God accepts us where we are. There is a great deal of drama on the road to Calvary. Our lives can be dramatic as well. In all those whirlwind moments, finding God's presence and understanding his will can be difficult. We walk with Jesus this week seeking inspiration and hope, the essential keys to unlock the door to God's presence in our lives.

PODCAST: Come Out!

In his latest podcast episode, Father Mark examines the miracles that Jesus performs and the context in which he does so. He also looks at how we, like Lazarus, have choices: stay in the darkness of our fears, stresses, and secular choices or embrace the light, love, and hope in Jesus Christ. Listen now: <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

May 6: Life in the Spirit Seminar A LIFE IN THE SPIRIT SEMINAR will be offered at St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish, Assumption Church, 27 Adams St. S., Manchester starting Tues., May 6 at 7 p.m. This 7-week program will show you how God is alive in your life! All are welcome! For more info., please call Jim (860) 643-1365 or Ray (860) 888-2269.

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, "To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it contradicts others. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues." Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved, and unjust death are played out dramatically today. Jesus spoke of God's unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn't like hearing about love, especially God's? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God's love. All those things occurred because of the implications of believing in God's love.

God's love comes with an intimate and equal bond with the love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God's kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness.

Sometimes, people want to keep God's love and use it solely for their benefit. Problems occur when they only want to use God's love to justify their intentions and projects.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that sin pounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you start doing what Jesus says and translate love into action, it will inevitably upset widespread and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these protect status, foster personal gain and success and further divide those who have from those who have not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cover back in fear and join the crowds shouting, "Crucify him!" There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough "to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues."

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to accept the consequences of doing so.

Apr. 26 & 27: Parish Diaper Drive

The annual Parish Diaper Drive takes place on April 26 and 27 at all Masses. This year, the diaper drive is being held in memory of Joan Dauber, founder of the Joan C.

Dauber Food Bank at Saint Francis

Hospital, who passed away on March 8. Diapers of all sizes (plus wipes!) are needed. Learn how you can help:

<http://isidoreandmaria.org/diaperdrive25>.

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month

During April, Catholic parishes and schools across the United States participate in National Child Abuse Prevention Month. While dioceses work year-round to prevent abuse, during this month a special emphasis is placed on the importance of learning how to protect the vulnerable from this evil. Together, let's pray that the vulnerable are protected from abuse, and that survivors of abuse may be accompanied on their paths to healing:

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowls are due for return to the Faith Formation Office on or before Sun. Apr. 27. Thank you for your generosity.

Easter Hymn: See What a Morning!

This Easter season, we invite everyone to lift their voices in song with our Easter hymn, See What a Morning by Keith Getty REGINA'S WRITINGS: What is it Like to Die?

Like a parent holding a sleeping child, Jesus' arms represent a safe place to rest. In her latest column, M. Regina Cram uses this imagery to explain a difficult concept to a dying child.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Isaiah bears witness as one who did not lose his faith despite persecution and ridicule. Can you discuss a time when your faith was put to the test?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches the Philippians that Jesus was humble and obedient to God even to the point of death by crucifixion. Why do you think humility and obedience are important virtues in following Jesus?

Gospel:

In his passion narrative, Luke is the only evangelist to highlight that both Pilate and Herod (Antipas) find Jesus innocent of the charges against him. Is there a friend or co-worker you could help this week who is being treated unfairly?

This Day in History — April 15

Happy Birthday Father Mark!

Say Oliver, do you know that April 15 is a special day to lots of people? That's right. It is U.S.A. Tax Return day! It is also our Dad's Birthday! I don't think he will celebrate with a big cake. We can have a "healthy" cake made by the our favorite grocery store. I bet Dad would like that. I am sure he will give us lots of treats to share and celebrate with him too!
